4. WILLIAM M. MORRIS

Born c. 1834/36 Michigan
Married 1865/68
Died c. 1891 [probably in Oklahoma or Texas]

The LDS records show that William M. Morris was born in 1834 at Knightstown, Rush [sic, it is in Henry Co.] Co., Indiana. It is very likely that these were from a Bible or records from Jonathan Marvin Morris' family. However, since most census records indicate that William Morris was born in Michigan I am using that until proven wrong. I do believe that his parents were only in Michigan for a brief time and that the family was gone from there by 1840. There is a family picture taken about the time William died, possibly at the time of his funeral.

Children:
Albert L. Morris b. c. 1866/68 possibly in St. Louis, MO (LDS records) m. 1894 to Bobbi Walling. He was on the rush for the Cherokee Strip in 1893 and listed from Van Alstyne. Was enumerated in Greer Co., OK 1900. Unable to locate after 1900. Believe that he died prior to 1922.
Children: William A. Morris b. Nov 1896 IT d. 1918 buried in France, Maude M. b. Sept 1899 TX, Paul, Thomas, Sylvia.

Sylvester M. Morris b. 1873 Summerville, MO, d. 1948. Buried Red Hill Cemetery, Roger Mills Co., OK.
Married
1. Mallei M. Bentle [buried in Red Hill Cemetery]
2. Effie Williams [Effie is buried in Red Hill Cemetery]
3. [wife unknown and there may be a 4th marriage]
Children by Mallei: Porter Roy b. Nov 1894 TX and died in Walla Walla, WA; May b. Oct 1897 TX, m. Bernard Pickelsimer and Frank Jay; Earl Ray b. Mar 1900 OK, Homer Jewell b. c. 1902, lived in Alma, Arkansas; Glen Bert.
Children by Effie: Delma Jane, Retta

Charles Marion Morris b. c. 1874 Texas, d. 1883 in Indian Territory (per LDS records)

John Henry Morris b. 2 August 1876 Van Alstyne, Texas; d. 15 Dec 1922 in Fremont, Dodge County, Nebraska and is buried in Ridge Cemetery, Fremont, Nebraska.
By 1900 he was living in Custer County, Montana. He was on the Board of Directors for Powder River County, Montana. He died in Fremont, Nebraska where he had travelled for medical treatment but his condition could not be helped; his wife's sister's husband was Dr. G. H. Rathbun and she was the informant for information on the death certificate.

Children: Wayne C. b. 4 Oct 1907 MT, John D. b. 6 Dec 1910 MT, Margaret b. 1914

Marvin Jonathan Morris b. c. 1878 Sherman, Texas, d. 14 Oct 1949, San Antonio, TX buried Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery; Tombstone reads Jonathan Marvin Morris [Section J, Grave 125]. m. Alta Betty Phillips [sister to Sam H. Phillips].
Children: Anne b. 1899 NM; Archie Willis b. 3 June 1900 OK, died in Merced Co. CA; Linnie Josephine b. 1903 OK

Jane Morris [also called Eliza in one document] b. 26 Feb 1880 Dennison, Grayson Co., Texas, d. 11 July 1948. Buried at Red Hill Cemetery, Roger Mills Co., OK; m. 1. Sam H. Phillips [also buried Red Hill Cemetery, OK], 2. Hugh Combs. Tombstone reads Jane Combs Phillips.
One son, Bert [also buried Red Hill Cemetery]

Bert Willis Morris b. 26 Sept 1885 Woodville, Indian Territory (now Marshall Co., OK) d. 8 January 1956; m. Hazel Ruby Parks 9 April 1913 in Miles City, Montana

Family, so far, only located in 1880 Grayson County, Texas Census. There also may be other children and a son older than Albert is a possibility. Please also note the unusual occurance of an Albert and a Bert in the children's names. Willis is a family name on the Burgess side which can be traced back to 1815.

5. JOSEPHINE BURGESS

Born 29 November 1846 Lewis County, MO
Married c. 1865/68 [probably along the eastern part of Missouri, but not in Lewis Co.]
Died 8 February 1909 Oklahoma
Buried Red Hills Cemetery, Roger Mills County, OK

She, as a widow, is enumerated in Grayson County, TX in 1900. Living with her are her son, Bert; niece, Lena Copeland; boarder, Albert Bentle. This document becomes critically important. The identification of Lena Copeland as her niece, and the tentative identification of Lena Copeland's parents as Joseph Copeland [Coplen] and Margaret Morris, leads to the first possible relatives [brothers/sisters] of William M. Morris [identification by Norman Davis].

There is a picture of Josephine Burgess Morris and her youngest son, Bert Willis Morris taken at Saunder's Photo Studio in Woodward, OK.

6. JEROME PARKS

Born c. 1850 Cass County, Michigan
Married 9 Sept 1891 Valley City, ND

Family members say that Jerome was married prior to his marriage to Mabel Stella Jewell. However, records in North Dakota for that period are nearly non-existant .

Howard died as an infant?
Irma b. 1896 North Dakota
Mai b. April 1899
John Lanceon d. Oakland, CA (The name Lanceon is nearly unique. I believe it to be a corruption of Alanson; other family members disagree with me)

Alice - private
Natalie - private
Duane - d. February 1999

7. MABEL STELLA JEWELL

Born October 1874/76 Ontario, Canada
Died 11 November 1939 Miles City, Montana

8. MORRIS?

Finding any of William M. Morris' family -- siblings, parents, extended family has proven to be exceptionally difficult. There seems to be little doubt that William M. Morris was born in the north -- whether it be in Michigan (1880 Census and several children's data), Rush or Henry Co. Indiana (LDS data), Illinois (Bert and Jane's death certificates), Milwaukee, Wisconsin (John Morris' death certificate).

In any case, the sojourn in Michigan seems to have been brief and, from intensive work on Michigan records, I believe that the family was not in Michigan in 1840; however, it is possible that William M. Morris was born [1834-1836] in Michigan Territory which at the time of his birth included Wisconsin and parts of many other states. Nor do I know where the family was in 1850. And, from the diverse responses by his children, even they might not have known.

(If anyone wants to join in the hunt, William Morris residing in the 1830's in Cass County, MI with wife Sidney Ann Montgomeryis a possible; Jonathan Morris (born in Pennsylvania) who resided in Benton County, Arkansas in the early 1840's and then Indian Territory and from about 1858-1868 in Grayson County, Texas is a strong possibility. Connections to Lite T. Morris/Austin Morris from Lewis County, MO, are possibles as are the Morrises living near Howe, Grayson County and the Morrises in Boone County, MO, and, possibly, the Morrisses in Montague County, Texas.). The strongest clues to other family connections might be in the names of the children: Albert, Sylvester, Marion, Marvin, Jonathan and Bert.

9. NN NN

Born in NY?

10. JONATHAN BURGESS

Born 25 August 1820 New York
Married 25 June 1843 Lewis County, MO
Died 12 Jan 1892 Grayson County, Texas

Children:

Josephine b. 1845 Lewis County, MO, d. 8 Feb 1909 OK, married William M. Morris c. 1865/68

William Thomas b. c. 1848, m 1 Feb 1874 to Martha Emily George, d. after 1910 [enumerated in Abilene 1910 per WFT]

Joshua b. 4 Jan 1850 Lewis County, MO, d. 1 March 1912, buried Red Hill Cemetery, Roger Mills Co., OK; m. Frances L. George [b. 4 Feb 1856 in Tennessee, d. 24 Feb 1892 and is buried in the Van Alstyne Cemetery, Grayson Co., TX]

Joel Willis Burgess b. April 1852, m. Sally Jane Harris, d. after 1920 Census. Per WFT Joel was enumerated in 1920 in Swisher Co., TX

John H. b. c. 1855 d. 1934 Miles City, Montana, buried Miles City, Montana, m. Martha Ellen ___ [on 1900 Census Custer County, Montana]. John H. Burgess was called one of the most colorful of the old cowboys of Montana; he is written up in their textbooks.Note that John Burgess is mentioned in Teddy "Blue" Abbott's We Pointed Them North and there is also a picture of him in the book.

James A. [G.?] b. c. 1858 [on 1860/70/80 census]

Fannie b. c. 1856? - not on 1860 Census, appears on 1870 census. She might have married prior to the family's move to Texas.

Julius Edward [Edwin?] b. c. July 1861 [1870/80/1900 census]. The family might know him as Ed; it is believed that he resided in Texas.

Nancy M. b. c. 1860/67 - on the 1870 census as Nancy b 1860, on the 1880

Martha or Julia b. c. 1865 - on the 1870 census - this may be person listed as M. A. on the 1880 census.

Elizabeth b. June 1873 in Grayson Co., Texas on the 1880 and 1900 census.

Please note that Jane and Jonathan had 11 children, 10 of whom were still alive in 1900. Because differing names or initials and differing birthdates were used on the Censuses of 1860/70/80, it is difficult to know who is whom. Fanny may be the child that died or the one who married at the age of 14. There is also a M. A. listed on the 1880 census and she may be the same as Julia. Julius Edward is called Edwin on one document and Edward on another, and there is some evidence that he was known within the family as Ed.

Census Information: 1850, 1860, 1870 - Lewis County, MO; 1880 Grayson County, Texas; 1900 - many children in Grayson County, some elsewhere as noted, others not located.

The Burgess family moved from Lewis County, MO to Grayson County, Texas possibly late 1871; the earliest document [deed] in Grayson County is dated 27 January 1872 when 160 acres was purchased on Case Creek from Thomas Moore.

The tombstone of Jonathan Burgess seems to date from his death. However, touching it is a larger monument which is quite wide. The base appears to be much older than the stone on top and is, in fact, of a different kind of stone. The tombstone on top is for Jane and Jonathan BURGERS. The dates for Jonathan's death are the same as for the stone adjacent. Only the last name is different. It seems that Jane [at least] changed her name. People I have corresponded with in Northern Texas speak of a Burgess family who changed their names to differentiate themselves from some other Burgesses. I suspect that it is this family.

In the 1900 Census Jane was enumerated as the head of the household. Jane had had 11 children, 10 of whom were still alive. She was born in VA, parents both born in NC. She could read but not write English, owned her home free. She was a landlord with 0 months unemployed. Edward her son and Betty her daughter were living with her.

12. ALANSON PARKS

15. JANE WALDRON

Per 1900 Census, she had had 11 children and 6 were still living.

After she died, her remains were sent, via train, to Oshawa, Ontario for internment near her husband [source is the Sheldon Enterprise]. Union Cemetery gives her age as 68 years and 5 months. Please see complete text under Notes.

Some reports from relatives say that Jane remarried [in Canada] after Daniel's death, perhaps to a Mr. Martin. This I have not been able to confirm. The marriage did not last long and she moved with some of her children first to Minnesota then to North Dakota.

Per the 1880 Census in Grayson County, Texas, Jonathan's father and mother were both born in New York.

22. JOSHUA ROBERTS

Born c. 1797 North Carolina [perhaps Tennessee]
Married 15 December 1820 Patrick Co, VA
Died after 1880 - Grayson County, TX most likely

Joshua first appears in the records of Patrick Co., VA with the marriage to Elizabeth Smith. They resided in Patrick County until at least April 1834 when they sold their land and by August 1834 they were in Lewis County, Missouri where they purchased land. Elizabeth died in the latter 1830's [no cemetery records available] and Joshua married Nancy Davis, probably a widow. It seems that he married a third time. It is very likely that he moved to Texas with his daughter and son-in-law in the early 1870's.

Joshua was residing with his daughter, Jane, and her husband Jonathan Burgess at the time of the 1880 Census. I consider it very likely that Joshua is buried with his daughter, Jane, in the Ethel Cemetery. Please see the notes under #10 and #11.

Died prior to 1880 Census

Joshua and Betsey sold property in Patrick County, VA in December 1830 and on 1 April 1834. After the latter sale, they probably moved directly to Lewis County, MO as on 24 August 1834, they purchased land there.

The 1830 Census - Patrick County shows 2 boys 5-10, 2 girls under 5, 1 girl 5-10.

Grant deed to James Roberts in Lewis County 25 February 1847.

A widow residing in Sandusky County, Ohio when she married Ebenezer. She died in 1844 per her son's biography. She and Ebenezer had 5 children. By the 1882, only Aaron and a sister still alive [Aaron's biography in county history]

Margaret (she was still alive when Aaron died but her married name is unknown).
daughter

3. Caroline
Children:
Wesley b. 1850 Lenawee, Michigan

The identification of Ebenezer as Alanson Parks' father was the result of combined work of Fred Hayes and myself. The letter to Roxy Tracy was critical in identifying Aaron Parks of Valparaiso as a relative, then the county history with Aaron's biography identified Ebenezer as his father. Further investigation led to Ebenezer's will which also identifies Alanson as a son and names the surviving children.

25. ROXANNA OLDS

Born
Died prior to August 1830 (not on the 1830 Census)
The positive identification of her as Ebenezer's wife is from a speech given at an Olds Family reunion in the 1880's in Oregon where she was identified as married to Ebenezer.

Emeline, b. c. 1815 Virginia [now WV?], m. 1837 Alanson Parks [Cass Co., MI], d. 1899.

Family tradition says that he married in VA, then travelled through TN and then north [Indiana?, Ohio?] and that his first wife died and he married a relative of hers.
[His first name was found by a Robert Parks; I found the record where he is listed as from England]

William

Bartlett owned property by the Blue Ridge Mountains. He was also a slave owner as is noted in the Tax List of 1782 Henry County and his gifts to his children.
[much of the information is from personal research of land records and census records]. While there are some purported genealogies of Bartlett, there are difficulties with them - such as requiring that he reside in two place at the same time and be born prior to 1744. The name Bartlett is unique enough that I believe it may be sorted out. The problem is possibly due to a missing generation where there are men with the same name. Since the area where Bartlett Smith lived, and probably came from, has had courthouses burn there are difficulties as official land and deed records are gone.]

FAMILY NOTES

JOHN H. MORRIS DIES IN NEBRASKA

John H. Morris , chairman of the board of county commissioners, passed away at Fremont, Neb., Friday morning December 15, 1922 and internment occurred in a cemetery there the following Sunday.

Death was the result of kidney trouble and other complications. Mr. Morris, accompanied by his wife, went to Fremont, Neb. about two weeks before where he was hopeful that special hospital treatment would better his health, but it was of no avail, for his condition had become too far advanced. While he had not been feeling in the best of health for several months, he went to Miles City on the advice of Dr. James, for consultation by the doctors there. Even then his condition would not permit the extraction of several teeth that needed attention. After a thorough diagnosis, the Miles City doctors told Mr. Morris his case was hopeless and his days were numbered . They advised him to attend to any legal papers without delay. He returned to his home, drooped in spirit and daily became more restless as his vision became impaired and his physical condition weakened. Although he was given every possible attention to alleviate his condition, he had passed beyond the relief of medicines.

John H. Morris was about 47 years of age at the time of his death. He was born in Texas, and came to this part of Montana in the early 90's. As a cowboy he started to work for J. H. Burgess on the old S H ranch at the fork of Powder River, now known as the Ben Johnson place. He followed the life of a cowpuncher for a number of years and then started ranching for himself, settling first on Hay creek on the place now owned by William Lavell. He was working for George Pemberton and others at the T A ranch which was formerly known as the SH ranch when he met Miss Reta McArthur, a school teacher near Alzada, and later married her. Morris sold his Hay creek ranch and bought the ranch of Jack Watt on the Little Powder river, where he has made his home for the past 15 years. He is survived by his beloved wife, three children, Wayne, Jack, and Margaret Morris, and by a sister and two brothers. At the time of his death, Mr. Morris was chairman of the Powder Riber County Democratic Central committee.

Mr. Morris has been in public life since the creation of Powder River county in the spring of 1909. At that time he was appointed as one of the county commissioners by the legislature, and by the county board was elected its chairman. He was re-elected commissioner to the four year term at the general election two years ago and had two more yeras to serve at the time of his death.

Be it said of "Johnny" Morris that he was a conscientious public official and did what he believed was for the benefit of the majority. He was well acquaited with county affairs and contributed a large part of his time to the interests of the public. He was never too busy to listen to and adjust county difficulties for he had a faculty of appeasing and harmonizing public grievances.

While resident of the county had been prepared for the dath of Commissioner Morris they were hopeful that his condition was not so aggravated as reported and that he would regain his health. His many friends in this county express their sincere sympathy to his bereaved relatives in their great sorrow.

[There is a note on February 9, 1923, that Mrs. Rea Morris returned to her home from Fremont, NB, where she had been since the death of her husband in the early part of December.] The note regarding John's surviving siblings is curious. The sister was Jane Morris Phillips; however, ther following brothers were known to be alive: Sylvester, Jonathan Marvin, and Bert Willis. The fate in 1922 of his oldest brother, Albert, is left in question. Was Albert omitted or had he already died?

LAST RITES FOR COLORFUL CATTLEMAN

23 Feb 1934
Funeral services for the late John Miles City Saturday afternoon, and were conducted by the Rev. M. Van de Mark, and were attended by a host of friends who paid their last respect to one of the most colorful characters ever connected with the old range days in Montana.

Mr. Burgess was one of the old timers, and saw and participated in the rise and fall of the cow business when herds were rated by the thousand head. Mr. Burgess first came to Montana in 1886 when he drove 5,000 steers from Texas to a location north of the Yellowstone. Horace Broaddus, a brothers [sic] of the three Broaddus men now living here was with this drive but he returned to Texas. These steers were owned by the Newman Cattle company of El Paso, Texas, and whose headquarters in Montana was on Powder river at the mouth of Cache creek where E. Lee Wilson now has a ranch, and the brand was the N and the manager was Mr. Haston, an uncle of the Broaddus boys. In the spring of 1887 following the noted hard winter Mr. Burgess took 1700 head of steers the last of the 5000 to the Rosebud agency __ South Dakota for summer range.

Later Mr. Burgess went to work for the Northern Cattle company of which Joe Scott was manager, and it had headquarters at the mouth of Little Powder, a few miles below Broadus, and this land is now owned by Osborn Pemberton.

Their brand was the SH and Mr. Burgess remained with this outfit until it dispersed its cattle, and when it sold he and the late Henry Peays brought the remaining calves. Mr. Burgess took his calves to the head of Hay creek, now the Robison place, and established a ranch. Mr. Peays start in the cattle business was made at that time and he took his stock to the present Peays ranch on the Powder river.

Mr. Burgess was successful in his cattle business and sold out after he and his wife went to Rosebud, Montana, to live. The call of the Powder river country was too great to resist and after moving to Rosebud he spent most of his summers among his old friends in this section where he was an ever welcome guest at every ranch home.

Mr. Burgess was not a big man physically but he had high courage, an undaunted spirit that carried him through many a crisis in his career. Many of the old time cowboys remember him and will note his passing with regret. He always paid the best wages to his men but he was loyal to his employers whose interests always came first and as a cow man he stood at the head.

Among those who attended the funeral in Miles City from here were Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Pemberton, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Richardson, John and William Broaddus.

John Broaddus and Tom Gilmore were two of the pallbearers.

He leaves a widow to mourn his loss.

(Note: John Burgess is mentioned several times and there is a picture of him in We Pointed Them North by Teddy "Blue" Abbott)

MRS. BURGESS' FUNERAL MONDAY

8 March 1935
Funeral services for the late Mrs. Martha Ellen Burgess, widow of the late Johnny Burgess, a pioneer of the Rosebud region was held Monday at the Graves chapel in Miles City at 2:30. The services were in charge of the Rev. M. V. Higbee, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Interment was in the family lot in Miles City.

Mrs. Burgess was born in West Virginia December 17, 1864. She wa 71 years of age at the time of her death. She made her home in Rosebud during the past 26 years and was widely and favorably known. During the past year her daughter, Mrs. Hallie B. Jacobs, made her home with her mother.

In the early days of the great cattle business Mrs. Burgess was a resident of Powder River county or that section now known as Powder River county. Her husband, the late John Burgess was one of the most colorful figures of those times, and was one of the moving spirits of the great SH outfit, whose headquarters were at the mouth of Pilgrim creek.

Quoted from the Genealogical and Family History of New Jersey:
Contact with any descendants or anyone having information on this Morris line would be welcomed

The death of John Morris, which occured at his home in Westchester , removed from that section one of it's most useful and highly respected citizens, who had made his home there for over 36 years. His parents, who were of Huguenot extraction, were for many years residents of Middletown, Monmouth, New Jersey. After the death of his father, which occured at an early age, his mother remarried and after her death he was placed in the care of strangers. Upon attaining to years of discretion he learned the trade of painter in the city of New York, which line of work he pursued during the active years of his life. He became a thorough master of his profession and executed a large amount of first class work among the leading families of New York City. among whom may be named the Morris family of Revolutionary fame.

Mr. Morris married, December 24, 1851 Mary Ann Winham, a native of New York City, her parents settling there upon their arrival from the north of England, where their births occurred. She was left an orphan at the early age of three years. She died at Westchester, April 21, 1898., aged sixty-nine years and eight months. Their children were: Frederick Ryer, born October 6, 1852, died at Westchester, August 29, 1898; he married a Miss Hoffman, and their children were: Maria, Mamie, Bertha, Julia and Frederick Morris. Rufus C., born February 7, 1855, of whom hater. Joseph Lee, born August 12, 1857, died May 8, 1894; he married Jennie Hines, and their children were Alfred, Jennie, Walter and Nettie Morris. Asher Lee, born March 5, 1861, died July 13, 1898. Martha Ann, born Jinie 29 1863, died Septemher 15, 1865, aged two years and two months. Mary Lee, born August 9, 1865, married Louis Philip Steiniger, and their children were: Louis, Rufus, Elizabeth, Edwarel, Mary, Catherine and Beatrice Steiniger. Jessie Merrill, born March 28, 1868, married William Wolf, no issue; she died July 19, 1899. Edward Ryder, born July 31, 1871, unmarried. John W., born March I, 1875, married Annie Langford, aud their children were: Lillian May, Mabel Louise and Annie Elizabeth Morris.

Rufus C. Morris, second son of John and Mary (Winham) Morris, was born at Westchester, borough of the Bronx, February 7, 1855.

He attended the public schools, and after completing his studies learned the trade of butcher, which he followed for a short period of time. In 1875, desiring to see the country and learn something of the great northwest, he traveled overland to the Pacific coast and spent nearly three years in sight-seeing and engaging in various kinds of employment. Upon his return home he again took up his residence in Westchester, now a borough of the Bronx, and after a short period engaged in the Oyster planting business in the waters of the East River and Long Island sound. He began with limited capital, but by his indefatigable energy and perseverance succeeded in building up an extensive and profitable business, and has gained a reputation for integrity and moral character. He has been instrumental in aiding the progress and development of the community in which he resides, and ranks among the useful and influential citizens. Mr. Morris married (first) Mary L. Corliss, born in May, 1851, daughter of Michael and Mary Corliss, natives of the north of Ireland, and their children were as follows : Joseph and John (twins), born June 26, 1884; Joseph, died July 29, 1884, and John, August 1, 1884. Thomas Edward, born February 2, 1886. William Henry, born September 17, 1887. Alice Elizabeth, born February 25, 1890. Mrs. Morris, who was a faithful wife and loving mother, died April 11, 1893. Mr. Morris married (second), August 29, 1896 Anna Maria Jackson, born February 2, 1870, widow of George Tiffauy Jackson, and daughter of John W. and Mary (Robinson) Baxter, both representatives of old families of Westchester. The children of this marriage are : Elsie Waterbury and Ethel Minerva (twins), born October 17, 1897; Carrie Springsteen, born June 21, 1900; Rufus Crawford, born July 15, 1909. Mr. Morris and his family attend the Presbyterian Church at Throggs Neck.

Minnie Morris was my grandmother. I have an extensive family history from her to date, but have very minimal information on her siblings and their descendants.

Yes, we own a section of land in downtown Philadelphia. At least several people, including my grandmother, was bilked of a tidy sum by various con artists.

the Christian Church.

Capt. James W. Morris was born in Worcester County, Md., September 29, 1826, and is the son of Philip and Mary (Hall) Morris, also natives of Worcester County, Md. The father was born in 1837, of Irish descent, and died when fifty-five years of age. He began in early life to follow the sea, and made many voyages to different countries. The mother was of English descent, and died in Scotland County, Md., when eighty-one years of age (July 13, 1872). Her father and four brothers were sea captains, and when not on a voyage the former taught navigation. The mother of our subject was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church for over sixty years, and by her marriage became the mother of seven children, only three now living. Our subject began his education in Maryland, and finished in Missouri. He was eleven years of age at the time of his father's death, and the following year the family moved to Hannibal, Mo., where they lived for two years. They then spent some time in Shelby County, after which they moved to the wilds of Scotland County. In 1849 our subject crossed the plains to California, where he was engaged in mining, and was also engaged as a packer on the Trinity River. He also made trips to Oregon, and other States and Territories. The adventures of Capt. Morris while in California would alone make a volume. This venture proved successful, and he returned to Scotland County, Mo., in 1854, by way of Nicaragua and New York. The 14th of September, of the same year, he married Miss Martha Talbott, a native of Pendleton County, Ky., born February 1, 1824, and the daughter of Peter and Martha Talbott. This marriage was blessed by the birth of five children, four now living: Annie, Ella F., John T., and Jennie. James died December 6, 1881, when in his twenty-third year. Our subject purchased the farm on which he is now living, but later engaged in merchandising in Memphis, Mo., which he continued until the breaking out of the late war, when he moved back to his farm, and has continued there ever since. During the early part of the war he was made lieutenant, but was afterward promoted to the rank of captain of Company I, of the State militia. Before the war our subject was a Democrat, but since then he has been a supporter of the Republican party. He is a good man, and a prominent and influential citizen. His wife and three children are worthy members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, of which he is a ruling, elder, in Pleasant Hill Congregation, Kirksville Presbytery, Missouri.

Mr. Danglade-I am sending you some more history. Mrs. Effa Danner wrote me, saying that as I had taken my pin hand that she hoped to see more of my articles. She said that the reason the Dufours got so much publicity, was because they had written their own history and if we do not do likewise it will be gone forever.

John Hulley of Lewisville, Ind., wrote me that my article in the Christmas number was worth more to him than all the issues of the paper for the whole year, that he had read it several times and expected to read it several more times. Grace and Guy Walden and Wes expressed their appreciations of it. Lida Cotton Nay of Columbus wrote me that she never knew what her grandfather Protsman's given name was until she read that article, and asked for more Protsman history. Others have sent me word that they wanted to read more from my pen. A stranger at the McFarland sale found out who Clarence was, sent word by him that while he didn't know any of the people whose names were mentioned, but he liked to read those kind of stories. Some said they liked the second article better than the first. I hope someone will like this one.

Most of these items have been handed down to me by my predecessors. -Olive Clements Cotton.

The Story

There was a Peter Sigmon; we presume that he was the father of John Sigmon, but we have no dates or proof, only the name. John Sigmon was born in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia on the 6th of June 1784. His wife was Rachel Richards, born November 26, 1793. They were the parents of seven children, some of whom were born in Franklin county, Virginia. Their names were Mary, called Pop or Polly, as it was the custom in those days to call most all Marys by that name. My mother had three aunts that she called "aunt Pop". Other children were Thomas, Larkin, Julia Ann, Catherine (Cassie), John R., and Jesse.

It is not known whether or not that the family went to Kentucky before they crossed over the Ohio river to Switzerland county, but most of the early settlers did, and likely they did so also.

They owned quite a good many acres of land, part of which was owned by one of the descendants as late as 1913.

Mary married William Griffith, her first cousin. A great many people in those days married their first cousins. They had two sons, Benjamin and William Jr. After his death she married William Gray; they were the parents of three children, John, Mary Ann and Isaac Gray. Therefore William Griffith, Jr., and Isaac Gray were half-brothers. They married sisters, Mary Frances Banks and Eliza. Their children will tell you that they are not double cousins but cousins and a half.

The Griffith girls, Emma, Olive and Ella now live in the residential part of the Lanier House in Madison, and look after the main part of the building. There were 8 of the Gray children which are scattered about, Vinnie, the youngest is the art teacher in the Madison schools; Jasper owns a farm on Rykers Ridge, three have passed on, Ettie Waltz and Lou live in Indianapolis and Beatrice at home with her mother. Their father was a Civil War soldier.

Now back to the other children of John and Rachel. Thomas also married his cousin, Rachel Lewis. They had four daughters, Lizzie, who never married, Ann was the mother of Thomas Protsman of Indian Creek, Mary Belle married Albert Clements, no children; Nettie married Horace Protsman and had three daughters. Anna married Jesse Curry, Effie married a Hess, and Ella, Ed Duvall.

Julia Ann Sigmon married Jacob Lewis. They had six children, Sarah, Isaac, Rachel, Margaret, Mary and John. Sarah was my mother.

Larkin Sigmon, the one who "laid the cornfield by." Related in one of my previous articles, marred where the Sigmon's got their singing ability. He never married. To get a joke on my grandfather Clements who was born in 1811, he got hold of the family record and made the last figure into a 4 to make it appear that he was younger, as he was looking for a second wife, but he used an ink that never faded and shows today as plainly as when first written, while the balance is almost faded out.

Catherine (Cassie) the youngest of the family was a great deal younger than the balance of the original Sigmons. She had nieces and nephews who were as old as herself. My father and she were born the same day, September 8, 1840 and they all grew up together as youngsters. She married John Protsman, Jr. They had three children, Maggie, now the wife of John Swango of the Mt. Sterling vicinity; Anna who died in early childhood; a son was born dead a day or so before the mother passed away and was buried with her in the same casket in the Long Run graveyard.

The older Sigmons and most of the younger ones were Baptists and most all buried at Long Run. Since country burial grounds are so badly neglected, and desirable space is so meager, the later generations are burying their dead in the Vevay cemetery.

John G. Sigmon was married to Sarah Morris and their oldest daughter Clara Belle married her mother's cousin, Rev. W. E. Morris. They had five children, Claude, Spurgeon, Judson, Minabel and Meta. Claude and Judson were Baptist preachers. Claude passed on three or four years ago in New York City where he was the pastor of a church. Minabel married a man by the name of Hunt. They are the parents of Marsha Hunt, the movie actress of Hollywood, California Meta married a Mr. Boorn and lives in Tenafly, N. Jersey. Rev. W. E. Morris died twenty years ago. His widow made several trips clear across the U. S. visiting her children. After several years she married a man by the name of Booe, and lived at Mocksville, N. Carolina where she died in 1942 and was buried beside her first husband in Memorial Park cemetery, Indianapolis.

My father always said the Sigmons were honest, upright, honorable people and if there was any irregulars among them it came from the other parental side of the house.

Claude Morris said it almost knocked him down when he was asked to perform the marriage ceremony that joined his mother to another man but that he went through with it.

My grandparents, Jacob Lewis and Julia Sigmon were married May 5th in 1841 or 42. I have been told that the season at that time was so far advanced that they had green current pie for the wedding. As far as I can remember back there has never been a season that early since.

The original John Sigmon had a sister Katie. There may have been other children in the family but I have never heard of them. Katie married Jackson Griffith. They were the parents of William and Joshua mentioned elsewhere in this article. I have heard of my mother speak of uncle Jack and aunt Katie Griffith. They were really her mother's aunt and uncle. Benjamin also mentioned before, married Adaline Hucklebery, a sister to Mrs. Laura Hucklebery Brindley, the wife of William COTTON CONT... .. .. .. Brindley, and mother of all those nine men and one girl Mellissa who became the wife of George Madery, also grandmother of Marion Brindley who is a teacher in the public schools of Madison.

Adaline had six children, Ann Mariah the oldest was totally blind from the effects of scarlet fever. She was educated in a blind school. She learned to sew and would thread her needle with her tongue. She learned to make little baskets out of beads strung on copper wire. No doubt there are some in existence at this late day. The one in our family was made of crystal beads with a red bead stripe around near the top. After her mother's death she took over the management of the home. Making all her brothers and sisters clothes by hand. John, the oldest boy taught this writer to walk in her babyhood days. Then there was Albert, Mary, Alice and Gertie. Their home was on the western end of the Pendleton Run road. Near where the house stood was a very steep short hill that is still known after a hundred years as the Ben Griffith hill.

The family moved to Kentucky and after then I lost contact with them. Joshua Griffith married Caroline Vernon and became a Baptist preacher and was the minister of Long Run church for 48 years, almost without any pay, a great many of the congregation were his own relation, and appeared to think that he didn't need any pay.

Mary (Polly) Gray (who was born at Bardstown, Ky., in 1817). In 1836 they were the parents of twelve children. Joe and Jesse were Civil War veterans. Before they entered the army they used to help in harvest time on my grandfathers farm. His little son George was very small and Joe would toss him up on the hay mow and let him slide down. Little George would say, "Do 'gin, shunny, Joe Shinny." He tried to say, "do it again, it's funny, Joe Sigmon." Neither of the boys got back home alive both were on their way home, but death overtook Joe at Louisville, March 11, 1862. Jesse got as far as Madison, where his mother met him. He was so ill and so thin in flesh that his mother did not recognize him and thought there had been a mistake, and it wasn't her son. He said, "Oh yes, mother it's I, and you are as fat as a buck." He died March 27. Their little sister seven years old, who was said to be a very sweet singer, died April 5th, making three deaths in that family in less than a month.

Singing seemed to be a natural gift to the Sigmon family, especially to that branch. Francis Marion (Mac) had as fine a voice as any one I ever heard. On warm summer evenings we would hear him, just after dusk coming home from Vevay, riding his white horse General, and singing to amuse himself. When he would go down between the hills his voice would go soft pedal, then when he came on top again it would come on full volume. He sung various songs, but "When you and I were Young, Maggie" and "Fuller and Warren" seemed to be his favorites. I never heard anyone else sing the latter. I only remember two lines of it which were,

"With one fatal shot, he killed Warren on the spot.
Then away to Edinburg he went."

John G. and all his family were singers. Andrew would take his song book and sing by note songs that he never had seen before, just like other people would read a book of stories. He said he liked to sing them to see whether he liked them or not. His sister Lida, has sung in the choir at Burbank, California for twenty years. She also plays her harp on special occasions, and never fails to get an encore.

"Lark" was the fifer. His first fife was one he had made from a hollow weed stalk; some time after he came into the possessions of a real fife and later a piccolo. He played for the drum corp at a great many picnics and rallies.

When Don's oldest daughter Clara was so young she could not walk a step or speak a word, I have seen her sit on the floor and hum tunes which she had learned form hearing others sing and would keep time by swaying her little body to and fro. She liked that better than playing with toys. Also Thomas' three sons, Dale, Charlie and Earl and grandson Robert Burrows, made a fine quartet that was a treat to hear.

Dale and Della are twins, born exactly one hundred years after the signing of the Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1876. I have seen Della play the harmonica and piano both at the same time. She had a sort of wire support that she hung around her shoulders that supported the harmonica where she could blow it and played the accompaniment with her hands on the piano, and her older sisters, Emma and Dora, have always sung in their church choirs.

Their mother was Samantha Protsman. Once when she was a small child she went with her two brothers, John and Joe to Mrs. Hulley's on an errand. After they had accomplished their purpose, the boys wanted to return home but their sister wasn't ready for Mrs. Hulley had just taken the lid off her Dutch oven where she, was baking light bread. At that time cook stoves had not come in use, all cooking was done before an open fireplace. The bread smelt so good and looked so nice that Samantha thought if she hung around 'till it was taken from the over that she might get a slice. Mrs. Hulley left the room for a short time and the boys were still coaxing her to go. She made motions and told them what she was waiting on. The boys knew how finicky she was about what she ate, so one of them reached out and touched the top of the bread with the toe of his boot, and said, "now come on and let's go home." He knew she would not eat it after he had put his foot on it, and that's the way they persuaded her to accompany them back home.

John R. was another son of the original John Sigmon. He married Louise Ogle. They had three children, Albert, Louella and Edwin. When Albert was a small boy he would beg his grandfather to tell his stories, he being a good hand at that and what was best his stories were events that actually happened. He always began his stories with "Once upon a time," but he didn't always have one on the tip of his tongue when little Albert asked for one. He would tell his grandfather that he would tell him a story if his grandfather would tell him one. All right it was a bargain. So little Albert would begin, "Once time there was old man and boys," but that was as far as he ever got, then he would say, now grand-daddy I have told you one, now you tell me one." The family moved to New Albany where they went into the hardwood lumber business if I am not mistaken. Louella married Robert Wilcockson; they had two children, Artimisia and John. She used to bring her children up to her uncle Tommy Sigmon's in the summer time to visit among her relatives. John got a shingle nail in one of the bronchial tubes and never grew much as long as it was there. I heard later that the nail had been recovered then he began to grow. Among the last letters I received from Ella Lewis Ogle she told me of Artimisia's death. She had married and died recently; she gave no other details.

Edwin became a doctor. There was a man by the name of Lou Stewart who attached himself to the family and always lived with them. After Ella Ogle passed on I have lost all track of the family, but suppose there are descendants in and around New Albany at the present time.

Jesse, a younger son of John and Rachel, was a music teacher; he taught singing. Perhaps there is Several references list a David Morris as an editor of several early-1800's Batvia newspapers. Can anyone provide information showing whether this David Morris (editor) is the same man who was born abt. 1789 in PA and died 1843 in Clermont Co, having married Matilda Shumard? Thanks much.

David Morris, 1789-1843. Was one of their children Lorenzo Dow Morris? He was born 1818 in Williamsburg, Clermont Co, Ohio and died November 9, 1861 in Iowa. Lorenzo's father was David and my information says he was an attorney. Lorenzo's obit says he (Lorenzo) was editor for two years of the Clermont courier published in Clermont Co Ohio. I am not sure who David married, but this sounds like a possible answer for you and perhaps me also. I have been searching for the correct David Morris.

David Morris and his wife Matilda had only two children: Eliza (1834-1882) and Hannah (1837-?). There were no sons from their marriage. I have wondered, but never discovered, if he was married before, because of his age.

Francis Dunlevy

"History of Hamilton county, Ohio"
published 1881 by Ford

pg 352:
Transcribed by Linda Boorom.

Francis DUNLEVY emigrated from Kentucky to Columbia in 1791, and at first was engaged in teaching, in company with Mr. John REILY. He was then less than thirty years old., having been born near Winchester, Virginia, December 31, 1761. When but a boy he was engaged in Indian, and afterwards in the Revolutionary warfare, and helped to build up Fort McIntosh, the first regular military work within the present bounds of Ohio. He was at Crawford's defeat on the plains of Sandusky, and in the retreat was cut off from the main body of the army, and had to make his way through the wilderness to Pittsburgh. In 1787 he removed with his father's family to Kentucky, and ten years afterwards, having resided six years in Columbia, he removed to the vicinity of Lebanon, where he died, November 6, 1839. He was fourteen years presiding judge of the court of common pleas of the first circuit, which included Hamilton county, and was a member of the first Constitutional convention, also of the first legislature that assembled under the State government.

Senator Thomas Morris

"History of Hamilton county, Ohio"
published 1881 by Ford
Spencer Twp
pg 352-3:
Transcribed by Linda Boorom.

The following notice of perhaps the most renowned citizen that Columbia ever had, is extracted from the Life of Senator MORRIS, by his son, Mr. B. F. MORRIS:

In 1795 Thomas MORRIS, a young and enterprising adventurer, nineteen years of age, from the mountains of western Virginia, arrived in Columbia. He was immediately employed as a clerk in the store of Rev. John SMITH, and became a great favorite with him. During this time his mind became deeply exercised on the subject of personal religion, and his feelings found utterance in frequent poetic effusions, which are all lost. Rev. John SMITH and others regarded these productions as of great merit for a youth of his age and limited education. For several years he continued in the employ of SMITH, improving, as he could, his mind by reading, and preparing for a wider sphere of action.

The plat of ground on which the great commercial city of Cincinnati now stands, was frequently traversed by MORRIS. His feet threaded the forest, then in the wild magnificence of nature, and the crack of his rifle brought down many a wild turkey from the tops of lofty trees which covered the very spot on which now is erected and established that noble building and institution, the Young Men's Mercantile Library association. How wonderful the change in fifty years. Now commerce, arts, sciences, education, Christian institutions, and the highest forms of a refined social civilization, and a prosperous industrial population of over two hundred thousand people, cover with their peaceful and noble triumphs, and their monuments of taste and civilization, and happiness, the same forest where young MORRIS was accustomed to shoot his wild game.

Mr. MORRIS married Rachel, daughter of Benjamin DAVIS, a Columbian who came from Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, to Mason county, Kentucky, and thence here. He was of Welsh stock and had a fine family of five sons and two daughters. MORRIS removed to Williamsburgh, and then to Bethel, Clermont county, and became greatly distinguished as a lawyer, legislator, United States Senator, and anti-slavery agitator.

Garret Morris

DIED
On the 11th instant, Garret, son of John and Jane Morris, aged five years and two months.

Death has all seasons for his own,
He wanders through earth's bowers,
And plucks, with an unsparing hand,
The buds as well as flowers.
A bud of promise was this boy
Just bursting into bloom,
But nipped before its blossoming
And laid into the tomb.

Death's signet rests upon his brow,
Closed are the sparkling eyes,
The little active agile form
All cold and lifeless lies.
But far beyond the shining stars,
Above all earth's alarms,
His ransomed soul has found a rest
Within the Saviour's arms.

Sarah Jane Snuff Morris

Mrs. Jonathan Morris, who has been confined to her room since early last Spring, quietly and suddenly passed away on Tuesday morning, the 14th inst. The cause of her death was a complication of diseases, and of such a character that medicine seemed to afford her no permanent relief. She was born in Warren County, Ohio, June 22, 1828. Sixteen years ago, she with her husband and children came to Michigan and located in Niles Township, where they remained until about two years ago, when they moved into this township. Some ten years ago she, and her husband and three oldest children, were converted, and united with the Berrien Centre Free Will Baptist Church, and she has remained a faithful and consistent Christian until her death. She died firm in the Christian's faith and a blessed hope of a glorious immortality beyond the grave. Previous to her death she had made a request that Elder Lewis Jones, her former pastor and by whom she was baptized, should preach her funeral sermon, and as he could not attend the funeral, the sermon was postponed. The services were conducted by Rev. W. M. Smith, of Berrien Springs.

I am attempting to unravel Thomas's genealogy. Here's what I know.
He was born in SC anywhere between 1835 and 1845.

he is listed in the:
1880 Census Appling Co. GA District 457, pg 61 (next to Frank R.Morris), Thomas Morris, aged 35, b 1845 in SC, widower, farm , laborer, James H. Morris, age 13 abt 1867 SC, Charles R. age 12 abt 1868 SC, Caroline Sard(?), widow, cook, lived between Thomas and Frank, born SC, m& F born in SC. She became Thomas's second wife.

1900 GA census Roll: T623 178 Page 98, Militia District 456, Appling, GA, Living with , Jacob M. Ricketson(1877, aged 23), son-in-law, , farmer, can r&w, Kate (Feb 1884, aged 16), his wife and Thomas's , daughter, can r&w, and , George their son, APR 1900, Thomas, born MAY 1830, aged 70, can r&w

242, GA 1910 Census, 16 APR 1910, Hazlehurst, Jeff Davis Co, GA, Thomas, aged 80, mother and father born in SC, Carrie, wife aged 57, married 35 years, son John, aged 23, laborer, odd jobs

The fact that he was living next to (Jame) Frank (Robert) MORRIS son of William MORRIS and Nancy CRUMMEY leads me to believe he was a son of WIliam MORRIS by a first wife. I am speculating that his full siblings were William H.(Robert) and Elizabeth E. MORRIS.

Does anyone have any information on John Morris and his wife Jane from Surry County, Virginia. William Pearson died July 9, 1769 on a voyage returning to Virginia from England. He had previously been responsible for the care of Jane Morris, the widow of John Morris who died in Surry County, Virginia in 1710. His wife Mary is presumed to be the child of John and Jane Morris. William also paid for the funeral of Jane Morris when she died May 18, 1728.

I am not a family member; therefore, more information would be helpful such as shown here for census records, deeds, wills, and such.

Please scroll down as I found one John Morris of Ray Co MO.
There are age descrepancies in the census records. That is not uncommon. There are mistakes in Census records.

McElroy Cemetery

McElroy Cemetery is located in Wynne, (Cross County) Arkansas. From Wynne, take Hwy 284 West and go about 3 miles and you will come to a curve continue around the curve for about a mile and you will see McElroy Methodist Church on the left, continue for about another mile and you will come to another curve, go straight ,which is Hwy 350. The cemetery is on the right. It is nestled among several old trees and is very clean and well kept. There are several old stones and some are missing. I was able to read the ones that are there and I know you will enjoy yourself while you are searching for loved ones.

FAMILY NOTES

JOHN H. MORRIS DIES IN NEBRASKA

John H. Morris , chairman of the board of county commissioners, passed away at Fremont, Neb., Friday morning December 15, 1922 and internment occurred in a cemetery there the following Sunday.

Death was the result of kidney trouble and other complications. Mr. Morris, accompanied by his wife, went to Fremont, Neb. about two weeks before where he was hopeful that special hospital treatment would better his health, but it was of no avail, for his condition had become too far advanced. While he had not been feeling in the best of health for several months, he went to Miles City on the advice of Dr. James, for consultation by the doctors there. Even then his condition would not permit the extraction of several teeth that needed attention. After a thorough diagnosis, the Miles City doctors told Mr. Morris his case was hopeless and his days were numbered . They advised him to attend to any legal papers without delay. He returned to his home, drooped in spirit and daily became more restless as his vision became impaired and his physical condition weakened. Although he was given every possible attention to alleviate his condition, he had passed beyond the relief of medicines.

John H. Morris was about 47 years of age at the time of his death. He was born in Texas, and came to this part of Montana in the early 90's. As a cowboy he started to work for J. H. Burgess on the old S H ranch at the fork of Powder River, now known as the Ben Johnson place. He followed the life of a cowpuncher for a number of years and then started ranching for himself, settling first on Hay creek on the place now owned by William Lavell. He was working for George Pemberton and others at the T A ranch which was formerly known as the SH ranch when he met Miss Reta McArthur, a school teacher near Alzada, and later married her. Morris sold his Hay creek ranch and bought the ranch of Jack Watt on the Little Powder river, where he has made his home for the past 15 years. He is survived by his beloved wife, three children, Wayne, Jack, and Margaret Morris, and by a sister and two brothers. At the time of his death, Mr. Morris was chairman of the Powder Riber County Democratic Central committee.

Mr. Morris has been in public life since the creation of Powder River county in the spring of 1909. At that time he was appointed as one of the county commissioners by the legislature, and by the county board was elected its chairman. He was re-elected commissioner to the four year term at the general election two years ago and had two more yeras to serve at the time of his death.

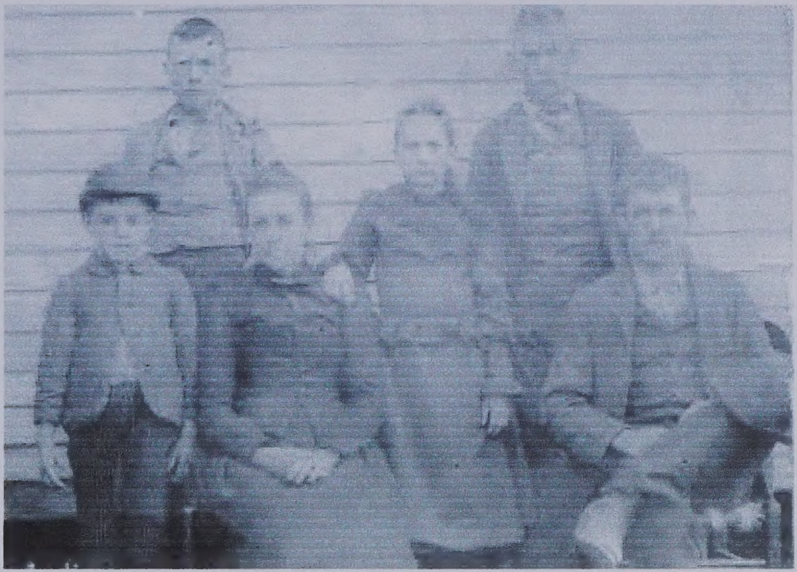
Be it said of "Johnny" Morris that he was a conscientious public official and did what he believed was for the benefit of the majority. He was well acquaited with county affairs and contributed a large part of his time to the interests of the public. He was never too busy to listen to and adjust county difficulties for he had a faculty of appeasing and harmonizing public grievances.

While resident of the county had been prepared for the dath of Commissioner Morris they were hopeful that his condition was not so aggravated as reported and that he would regain his health. His many friends in this county express their sincere sympathy to his bereaved relatives in their great sorrow.

[There is a note on February 9, 1923, that Mrs. Rea Morris returned to her home from Fremont, NB, where she had been since the death of her husband in the early part of December.] The note regarding John's surviving siblings is curious. The sister was Jane Morris Phillips; however, ther following brothers were known to be alive: Sylvester, Jonathan Marvin, and Bert Willis. The fate in 1922 of his oldest brother, Albert, is left in question. Was Albert omitted or had he already died?

MORRIS FAMILY PICTURE ABOUT 1891

It is my theory that this picture was taken at the time of William M. Morris' death. I do not know if it is in Texas or Oklahoma.



Front Row: Bert Willis Morris, Josephine Burgess Morris, Jane Morris (later wife of Sam Phillips), unidentified - possibly Albert Morris

Rear Row: unidentified. Probably two of the other three sons: Sylvester M. Morris, John H. Morris or Jonathan Marvin Morris

The tombstone of Jonathan Burgess seems to date from his death. However, touching it is a larger monument which is quite wide. The base appears to be much older than the stone on top and is, in fact, of a different kind of stone. The tombstone on top is for Jane and Jonathan BURGERS. The dates for Jonathan's death are the same as for the stone adjacent. Only the last name is different. It seems that Jane [at least] changed her name. People I have corresponded with in Northern Texas speak of a Burgess family who changed their names to differentiate themselves from some other

Notes for Michael Horn:

I have a note that Michael's father was John Horn. there was no note as to his mother. It seems logical that this Michael would be the brother of the John born abt. 1794.

17. Nancy^{2} Closser (Nicholas^{1}) was born October 29, 1802 in Washington Co., Pennsylvania, and died August 23, 1877 in Bath, Franklin Co., Indiana. She married (1) Enoch Morris[7] April 10, 1821 in Hamilton, Butler Co., Ohio, son of Robert Morris and Mary Crawley. He was born August 12, 1789 in Pennsylvania, and died August 16, 1850 in Bath, Franklin Co., Indiana. She married (2) Robert White August 23, 1855 in Union Co, Indiana.

Notes for Nancy Closser:

Death place also reported in Bath, Franklin county, Indiana (Leigh Morris File)

Nancy joined the Bethlehem Baptist Church just across the county line into Franklin Co, Indiana In May of 1877 after the death of her second husband, she visited her children in Madison Co.

In June she came down with Typhoid and died at the home of her son, Andrew J. 22 years to the day after she married Robert. She was brought back to Union Co by son Mahlon and her children accompanied. Funeral by Rev. Martindale at her son's At death she had 62 grandchildren, 36 great grandchildren and one great great grandchild.

In the 1860 census with her second husband, two of her sons by Morris and a Mary Morris, age 16, is living with her new family. Unsure who this Mary is. There was no Mary recorded as being her daughter that fits this age. Mary could be a new child.

Other children in the census are children with the White name and the Morris Children mentioned above.

Notes for Enoch Morris:

He was a private in the War of 1812 under Capt Zachariah DeWitt from Sep. 1814 to Nov. 1814.

Thanks to Jackie Bullock for the following.*

Enoch was a traveling shoemaker. It was the custom in the early days, on the periodical visit of the shoemaker, to have shoes made or repaired for the entire family. One bill dated 15 September 1819 in an estate matter, stated the following: "…make one pair of shoes $2.00…" one dated 25 October 1820 "…make one pair of 'course shoes' $.50 …" and the last bill dated 1 March 1821 "…one pair of uppers $.50…"1

Enoch is listed in the 1807 Census of Butler County, Ohio and the early records reflect Enoch and his family resided Milford Township and later in College Corner, Ohio, which is on the Ohio-Indiana border. This could account for some of his children being born in Ohio and some in Indiana.

Land records show that on 8 November 1817, Enoch sold to Archibald MORRIS, 50 acres in the northwest corner of the southeast quarter of Section 22, township 5, range 2 east for five hundred dollars. On 30 January 1822, Enoch sold to John MORRIS, part of the southwest quarter of Section 22, township 5, range 2 east 50 acres for the sum of five hundred and fifty dollars. On that deed, it was signed by Enoch MORRIS and Ann MORRIS. Nancy is a nickname sometimes used for Ann.

On 28 January 1831, Enoch sold to Edward OGLE, land in the southwest quarter section 22, township 5, range 2 east, "being the remainder of the said quarter section" deeded to Elijah EAST and Nicholas CLOSSER in tracts of 50 acres each. Again, the deed was signed by Enoch MORRIS and Ann MORRIS.

In the "History of Butler County", published 1882, page 566, Milford Township, it states the following: "…Darrtown in the spring of 1806, the first school was made up in this part of the township…it was a log building with a large fireplace in one end, logs cut out for windows, roof covered with clapboards, which were held down by weight poles. The house was used for 25 years and among the teachers were Enoch MORRIS…"

Enoch is shown in the 1830 Census in Milford Township, Butler County, Ohio. There was one male under five years old, 2 over five but not yet 10 and one male between 30 and 40. There was one female between the ages of 30 and 40 and one child under five.

Enoch and Nancy had seventeen children:

Children of Nancy Closser and Enoch Morris are:

+ 51 i. Nicholas Closser^3 Morris, born March 22, 1822 in Butler Co., Ohio; died October 03, 1895 in Summitville, Indiana.

+ 52 ii. Andrew J. Morris, born October 07, 1823 in Butler Co., Ohio; died October 16, 1894.

53 iii. Margaret Morris, born September 24, 1824 in Union Co., Indiana; died February 13, 1914 in Summitville, Madison Co., Indiana. She married John Flint Thurston^7 September 08, 1852 in Union Co, Indiana; born May 28, 1828 in Mixerville, Franklin Co., Indiana; died in Vinson Cemetery, Summitville, Indiana.

Notes for Margaret Morris:

Other records indicate the marriage took place in Madison Co., IN 54 iv. John Franklin Morris, born July 08, 1825 in Butler Co., Ohio; died October 11, 1905 in Jennings Co., Indiana. He married (1) Sarah Rose November 11, 1843 in Liberty, Union Co., Indiana; born Abt. 1825; died January 31, 1848 in Butler Co., Ohio. He married (2) Eunice Jane Frost October 09, 1852 in Jennings Co. Indiana; born February 15, 1834 in New York; died August 25, 1873. He married (3) Rhoda Rebecca Allee July 06, 1876; born 1833 in Indiana; died 1898.

Notes for John Franklin Morris:

John and Nancy Morris were twins. He died as a result of a farm accident. Was a farmer, Justice of the Peace and a trustee for Jennings Co., IN, for many years. Lived near Zenas in Columbia Township, Jennings Co. One of the early citizens there.

Notes for Katherine Morris:

Other records show her birth date to be 13 Jan 1831. POB was shown to be IN or OH

59 ix. Huldah Morris, born May 04, 1834 in Union Co., Indiana. She married Charles Atkinson[7] October 14, 1855 in Union Co, Indiana; born November 17, 1833.

Notes for Enoch Morris:

James' twin. Lived about 7 weeks before he died.

67 xvii. James K. P. Morris, born September 15, 1843 in Union Co., Indiana; died August 26, 1918 in Jamaica, Guthrie Co., Iowa. He married Cassina Pearson; born September 20, 1857; died December 26, 1894 in Jamaica, Guthrie Co., Iowa.

Notes for James K. P. Morris:

James and Enoch were twins One set of records indicated the year of birth was 1843 rather than 1845. The 1850 and 1860 census shows him living with his mother and children. He was a carpenter while living in IN, but also farmed when he moved to Iowa

The 1860 census shows his age as 17, making his birth date being 1843. Enoch was not in this census. James was living with his mother and her second husband.

His name is also shown on some records as James E.

Notes for Nicholas W. Closser:

*History of La Porte, Indiana, 1880 Pg 637-638**********

Nicholas W. Closser was born January 12. 1812, in Washington county, Pa. His first recollection is of moving to Warren county, Ohio, when he was about three years of age. He subsequently moved with his parents to Butler county, where he lived until he was 11 years of age, and thence to Indianapolis, Ind.. where they arrived January 8, 1823, and engaged in farming. During his minority he aided his father in clearing four large farms. He was a pupil in the first Sabbath school organized in Marion county, and has ever since identified himself with the Sabbath school interest. In 1828 he was converted and united with the M. E. Church, near Indianapolis. Subsequently, upon a more careful examination of the Scriptures, he became dissatisfied with his Church relationship, and in 1840 he united with the Baptist Church at Door Village, in which he still retains his membership. he was elected Deacon in 1842. On March 14, 1833, he was married to Miss Rebecca Parker, daughter of William Parker, a millwright and formerly of Pennsylvania. Her father died in Illinois. They have 6 children: Daniel P., Elizabeth H., Jerome B., Sylvanus M., Joseph A., and Emily R. April 13, 1834, he came to this county, and July following he left Indianapolis with his family, moving with ox teams, and he was 21 days in making the journey to Door Village. Here he engaged in farming and in the lumber business, having erected two sawmills, one powered by water and the other by steam. He made the first table and bedstead in the township. He also engaged extensively in the purchase of real estate, but has now retired from farming, and resides in the city of La Porte. There were but few neighbors here when Mr. Closser came to La Porte, and they were scattered all over the county. He and his brother were the first teachers of music in this part of the country. He was the second Constable in the county, before Porter and Lake counties were set off; was elected Trustee of Scipio tp., and served four years; has been Superintendent of schools, and was out in the Black Hawk war in 1832.

Mr. Closser has always taken an active part in public affairs, and has been identified with the Whig and Republican parties.

1850 census

Daniel is 36

Mary Ann is 33.

There are two possible places of his death. One in La Porte the other in Butler Co. The concensus is it was in La Porte, since he was living there.

Children of Daniel Closser and Mary Osborn are:

111 i. James McFarland^4 Closser, born Abt. 1836.

+ 112 ii. Emily (Emma) Jane Closser, born July 10, 1838 in La Porte, Indiana; died July 05, 1925 in Lake City, Colorado.

She was born January 15, 1821, and died May 24, 1841 in La Porte, Indiana. He married (2) Bridget Forrester October 10, 1842 in La Porte, Indiana.

Notes for Bridget Forrester:

I have also seen her last name spelled Forster.

Children of John Closser and Bridget Forrester are:

115 i. James M.^{4} Closser, born Aft. 1842.

116 ii. Floyd Closser.

117 iii. Mary 'JC' Closser, born Aft. 1842.

118 iv. Harriet Closser.

119 v. Esther Closser.

34. Sarah Ann^3 Closser (Daniel McFarland^2, Nicholas^1) was born December 26, 1817 in Butler Co., Ohio, and died May 05, 1903 in La Porte Co., Indiana. She married William D. Parker[16,17] June 12, 1834 in Marion Co., Indiana[18,19], son of William Parker and Elizabeth Davis. He was born 1811 in Highland Co., Ohio, and died Bet. 1860 - 1880 in La Porte County, Indiana?.

Notes for Sarah Ann Closser:

The 1850 census (taken 9/9/1850) enumerated the following: William D. , 39, Sarah Ann, 33; Charlotte A., 14; Sophia. 12; Christiana, 4; William S., 1.

This 1850 census, taken in Scipio Township also listed the families of Daniel McFarland Closser and Nicholas W. Closser, Sarah's brothers.

The 1860 census (taken 7/15/1860) listed; W. D. , 48, Sarah A, 44; Charlotte A., 22; Christiana, 13; William S., 11. Sophia is not listed. Charlotte was listed as a Milliner in this census.

In a 1880 census, a Sarah, 61, is living with her son, M. R. The ages and birthplaces of all involved match what I know about Sarah Closser and Milton, her son.

Hi everybody,

I checked the MC Library obituary index and there are three listings for

Sarah Parker;

1, May 6, 1903, p. 5, c. 4, MICHIGAN CITY NEWS

2. May 7, 1903, p. 5, c. 7, MICHIGAN CITY DISPATCH

3. June 10, 1903, p. 4, c. 5 MICHIGAN CITY NEWS (this ones is listed as

Sarah Closser Parker.

Notes for William D. Parker:

The La Porte school records for 1846 showed: Sophronia, 10; Samuel. M, 12; Sharlotte, 13. (0048). These records contradict the 1850 census. This Samuel must be the son of Joshua Davis Parker.

The 1850 census (taken 9/9/1850) enumerated the following: William D. , 39, Sarah Ann, 33; Charlotte A., 14; Sophia. 12; Christiana, 4; William S.,

1. Also listed in the same household was two laborers and a John W, Darling age 9 born in Illinois.

This 1850 census, taken in Scipio Township also listed the families of Daniel McFarland Closser and Nicholas W. Closser who married Rebecca Parker (William's older sister).

The 1860 census (taken 7/15/1860) listed, house=1409, family 1379, page 500

W. D., 48, Lumber dealer, 300, Ohio

Sarah A., 44, Ohio

Charlott A., 22, Milliner, Ind

Christiana, 13, Indiana

William S., 11, Indiana.

Milton C., 4, Indiana

Sophia is not listed.

Using the 1850 and 1860 census, William may have been born between the dates of July 15 and September 9, 1811, including these dates.

Everything I find indicates that William and Sarah did not have sons of Samuel and Lewis. I strongly suspect that when these two are listed in the household, they are Joshua Davis Parker's sons. For that reason, I am removing them from William.

I found a 1880 census for who I think is William's wife, Sarah, who is living with her Son, M. R. Parker in Union, La Porte, Indiana. The age and birthplaces for her and her parents matches what I know today about them. The ages of her son and birthplaces also match what I know about him.

This is partial list of registered voters in Hendricks County (Center and Washington Townships only), as printed in the Hendricks County Union, issues of August 8, 1867, and August 15, 1867:

Children of Sarah Closser and William Parker are:

Notes for Charlotte A. Parker:

The La Porte school records for 1846 showed: Sophronia, 10; Samuel. M, 12; Sharlotte, 13. (PGD0048). These records contradict the 1850 census. This Samuel must be the son of Joshua Davis Parker.

The 1850 census (taken 9/9/1850) enumerated the following: William D. , 39, Sarah Ann, 33; Charlotte A., 14; Sophia. 12; Christiana, 4; William S., 1.

The 1860 census, William D. for household

Charlott A., 22, Milliner, Indiana

Notes for William Lace:

Came from Ancestry.com world tree

The William J. Lace found in the 1860 census, page 469/43 at Fair Play, Greene Co., Indiana is 36 years old, married to Catherine, 29, and have two daughters age 5 and 2. This doesn't match this William.

The William Lace in 1880 Denton, Texas census doesn't appear to be this one.

I search again for this marriage and try to get more dates. I couldn't find any evidence anywhere that this marriage ever occurred.

121 ii. Sophronia Parker[22], born 1838 in Indiana[23]; died in Westville, Indiana. She married L. C. Humbert; born WFT Est. 1838.

Notes for Sophronia Parker:

The La Porte school records for 1846 showed: Sophronia, 10; Samuel. M, 12; Sharlotte, 13. (PGD0048). These records contradict the 1850 census

Several places her name was spelled as Sophronia.

The 1850 census (taken 9/9/1850) enumerated the following: William D. , 39, Sarah Ann, 33; Charlotte A., 14; Sophia. 12; Christiana, 4; William S., 1.

Sophia is not listed in the 1860 census (taken 7/15/1860) which enumerated; W. D. , 48, Sarah A, 44; Charlotte A., 22; Christiana, 13; William S., 11.

+ 122 iii. Christiana Parker, born Bet. 1846 - 1848 in Indiana.

123 iv. William S. Parker, born 1849 in Indiana[23].

Notes for William S. Parker:

The 1860 census in Indiana shows his middle initial to be an S. not D. as I had originally thought it was. 5/5/02.

The 1850 census (taken 9/9/1850) for his father enumerated other members of the member and William S., 1.

The 1860 census, see William D. for household

William S., 11, Indiana.

124 v. Milton C. Parker, born Abt. 1856 in La Porte Co., Indiana. He married Hatella Pattee October 17, 1878 in La Porte Co., Indiana[24]; born Abt. 1856 in Indiana.

Notes for Milton C. Parker:

The 1860 census, see William D. for household

Milton C., 4, Indiana

The 1880 census head of household is M. R. Parker. The ages of him and birthplaces of everyone, parents indicates this census is this Milton. Also in the household is his Mother, Sarah Parker. Her age matches Sarah Closser, mother of Milton C. The census could be wrong with M. R.

Notes for Hatella Pattee:

The maiden name could be Hatella Pattee per Indiana marriage to Milton Parker in La Porte, Indiana, 10/17/1878, Book H., Page 353.

The 1880 census lists her name as Estrella and she indicates her parents were born in Indiana.

35. Abigail^3 Closser (Daniel McFarland^2, Nicholas^1)[25] was born January 09, 1820 in Cool Springs, La Porte Co., Indiana, and died 1902 in Cool Springs, La Porte Co., Indiana. She married Jacob H. White March 01, 1840 in La Porte Co., Indiana. He was born July 02, 1817 in Near Utica, New York[26,27], and died October 1880.

Notes for Rebecca Jane Sweat:

History of La Porte County, 1880, page 638, indicates her death year as 1847. Her maiden name could also be Swett or Sweet.

Indiana State Library, Indiana Marriages show Rebecca Jane Sweat married Andrew F. Closser. Sweat also show in Indiana Source Book 3 and Daniel Thompson family records. So guess Sweat it is !

He then returned to LaPorte County, Indiana, and united his fortunes with those of Miss Margaret A. McCormick, a daughter of Thomas and Theodocia McCormick, early settlers of that section. To Mr. and Mrs. Closser the following children have been given: Sarah P., wife of Ed. Michael, of LaPorte; Clarence Edwin, who is in the drug business. and is married to Alice, daughter of Dr. W. W. Wilcox; Charles Lincoln, who is a farmer of LaPorte County and is married to Susan Ladd; Hattie D.; Clara Belle, who died in infancy; William H., a member of the firm of Closser Bros.; Rose Abbie, married Fred N. Schultz, of Elkhart, Indiana; Louis F., married Lura D., daughter of William A. Banks, and Maggie M., who resides in LaPorte with her sister, Sarah. After his marriage Daniel P. Closser purchased a steam sawmill, but at the age of twenty-four found himself in debt $2,400, and in 1860 he disposed of his mill and purchased a farm of his uncle, Branson Parker, amounting to eighty acres. This farm he cleared and in connection with this work operated a sawmill belonging to William Maderas, his work being done entirely at night throughout one winter. In 1867 he disposed of his farm at $40 per acre, after which he became traveling salesman for the M. & J. Rumely Company for several years. He purchased the farm in 1867, upon which he resided until 1885, which is a well-improved place and is conducted in an intelligent and successful manner In 1885 he moved to Kingsbury and engaged in dealing in grain and livestock. On May 2, 1886, God suddenly called to her reward his beloved companion, Margaret A. In the full vigor of womanhood she was stricken down with apoplexy, and in two hours was at rest. This loss proved the most severe stroke of his life, as their marriage had been a very happy one. On October 25, 1888. he was joined in marriage to Susan Adell, daughter of Major Atkin, of Crown Point, and now resides in Kingsbury, close to his farms and surrounded by all his children but the one daughter, who lives at Elkhart. He has made a success of every enterprise to which he has given his attention, and as a traveling salesman was particularly successful. He is a Republican in politics and has served in the capacity of Township Constable and Trustee. He is a member of the Baptist Church and is Superintendent of the Cemetery Association and has twice been President of the Pioneer Association. He assisted in laying the corner stone of the new Courthouse and has been active in all the affairs of the county, and at this writing is improving and building two houses in Kingsbury, and clearing land on one of his farms. He is firm in the belief of Solomon who says, "I once was young and now I am old, and I never have seen the righteous forsaken nor his seed begging bread."

Attended Franklin College. After finishing his education, he worked with his father on the family farm near Door Prairie. Then he went to Des Moines and opened a general store which he ran for two years, returning then to La Porte. After his marriage, he purchased a steam saw mill which he ran for two or three years, then returning to farming until 1867 when he became a salesman for the M. Rumely Co. for several years.

Notes for Christiana Parker:

The 1850 census (taken 9/9/1850) enumerated the following: William D. , 39, Sarah Ann, 33; Charlotte A., 14; Sophia. 12; Christiana, 4; William S., 1.

The 1860 census, William D for household

Christiana, 13, Indiana

In the 1880 census, her name is listed as Christie, she is 32 years old, this with the other data on 1850 and 1860 gives her birth year between 1846 and 1848. The 1880 census indicates her oldest two children were born in Illinois, while the youngest ones were born in Missouri and Pennsylvania. She must have moved after marriage to Illinois from Indiana, to Missouri then to PA after 1879 and prior to 1880 census.

Notes for Samuel S. Taylor:

The Hassand Family Tree indicates his name is Samuel.

The S. S. Taylor I have listed could be Samuel Seldon or Seldon Samuel.

I have searched extensively the 1870 census in Indiana, Illinois and Missouri plus any state that might have the family. I have not foound where they were in 1870.

In the 1880 census, the name listed is Seldon S. In this census,

Seldon S., 40, PA, Butcher, PA, OH (1840)

Christie, 32, IN, IN, OH (1848)

Hattie, 13, IL, PA, IN (1867)

Annie, 11, IL, PA, IN (1869)

Jessie, 2, MO, PA, IN (1878)

Georgie, 1, PA, PA, IN (1879)

Mary Morrescy, a servant, age 16, born in PA, parents born IRE, IRE.

It is interesting who is not in the census, that is the other children listed.

Per the 1880 census, they were married prior to 1870, Christie in her parents home in 1860. After marriage they either moved to Illinois where their first two children were born, then at some point after that, moved to Missouri for the last two children's birth. They apparently then moved to Penn.

Children of Christiana Parker and Samuel Taylor are:

243 i. Hattie[5] Taylor, born Abt. 1867 in Illinois.

244. Annette^5 Taylor (Christiana^4 Parker, Sarah Ann^3 Closser, Daniel McFarland^2, Nicholas^1) was born January 04, 1869 in Odell, Illinois. She married Spencer Thomas Hazen December 31, 1894 in Enon Valley, Pennsylvania. He was born March 21, 1866 in Lexington, Stark Co., Ohio.

Notes for Annette Taylor:

In the Hassand Family tree that I have a copy of, her name is Annie Louise Taylor. All the dates for her and her marriage are from there.

In the 1880 census, her name is Annie. This data matches the above tree information and thematches her parents information.

In the 1910 census: ED=0206

Spencer T. 43, Ohio

Annie, 40, Illinois

Dorothy, 11, Ohio

Seldon, 8, Ohio

Evelyn, 3, Ohio

Robinson J., 72, Ohio, (Father)

In the 1920 census:

1013 South Lindsey Ave, 21, 22, page 098B,

Spencer, 51, Ohio, Ohio, Ohio, Motorman, Street Car.

Annie, 48, Pennsylvania, Penn, Penn

Seldon, 17, Ohio, Machinist, Steel shop

Evelyn, 12, Ohio

There is some conflict in all the census for Annie. If there are all the same person and there is reason to believe that is so, the 1920 census for birthplaces of her and her parents are wrong. Even in 1910, her birthpalce in Illinois which matches earlier places, differs to the 1920. I think some census error was made in 1920.

Notes for Spencer Thomas Hazen:

In the 1910 census: ED=0206

Generation No. 1

1. Nicholas^1 Closser[1,2,3,4] was born 1751 in Germany, and died 1835 in Union Co., Indiana. He married (1) Mary Hafer. She was born 1760 in Harper's Ferry, Virginia, and died 1829 in Union Co., Indiana. He married (2) Rebecca Smith.

Notes for Nicholas Closser:

Nicholas may have been married twice, I have several records indicating marriages, one with Mary Hafer being first and one with Rebecca Smith being first. Looking at the birth dates of the wives and children, I would guess that Rebecca was 2nd and Mary was 1st.

At the age of two years, he, with his parents, emigrated to America, where they arrived previous to the Revolution, and settled in Virginia, within four miles of Harper's Ferry. While Washington's army was encamped at the Ferry, Mr. Closser fed them until his crop of 700 acres of corn was consumed, and did not receive any compensation from the Government. Although an alien, his sympathies were with the patriots, and he rejoiced at the final triumph of their arms.

In 1802 he moved to Washington Co., Pennsylvania; thence in 1814, to Butler Co., Ohio, and in 1830 to Wayne Co., Indiana, where he resided about 12 years.

Mr. Closser was small in stature, but of great mental and physical vigor, even to his latest day. He met a sudden death in 1835 or 1836. While riding out with his wife his horse took fright and ran away. He was thrown off and killed at the age of 84.

The 20th Century History of La Porte Co. indicates that the Closser family came from Washington Co. PA about 1815 to Warren Co., OH then to Butler Co OH in 1814 and Wayne Co, IN in 1830. Name was originally Glosser but changed to Closser by the American branch of the family. He was small in stature, but of great mental and physical vigor, even to his last day. He met a sudden death in 1835 or '36. While riding out with his wife his horse took fright and ran away. He was thrown out and killed at the age of 84.

CHAPTER 3

FIRST GENERATION: Closser, Glosser, Glohser, Closur, Kleisor, Clothier Families. Nicholas 1.

As in most of our ancestors' names, the name of Closser was spelled many different ways, and it is believed to be of German origin.1 The first Closser in America that I have been able to document is Nicholas CLOSSER. According to Ethel HEIMLICK who wrote "Stammbaum der Familie Heimlick", Nicholas name was spelled Glosser when they first arrived in America, but by the time his name is found in Pennsylvania and Ohio land records, it is spelled Closser.

Nicholas was born after 1742, but before 1750 in Germany, and at the age of two, immigrated with his parents to America. The family first settled in Virginia, about four miles from Harper's Ferry and one descendant believes that the family came from Hillesheim, Germany.

There was a Jacob GLOHSER, Jacob CLAUSER and Henry CLAUSER landing 29 September 1750 aboard the ship "Osgood" from Rotterdam. I have not been able to prove any connection between Nicholas and the three above named individuals.

The Closser family arrived prior to the Revolution and while Washington's army was encamped at the ferry, Nicholas fed them until his crop of 700 acres of corn was consumed; and it was stated that he did not receive any compensation from the government. Although an alien, his sympathies were with the patriots, and he rejoiced when they won.3 According to genealogist, L. POMPRELL, this may be incorrect folklore, as he is of the opinion, that Washington's army was never in that location.

He married Mary HAFER, but there is no information on the date or place of marriage, but based upon the birth of their first child, they would have been married prior to 1780. The oldest children were born in or near Sperryville, Rappahannock County, Virginia. Approximately 1800, the family moved to Washington County, Pa and in the "History of Washington Co. PA", several grandchildren were born in Amwell Township on the old Closser farm which was situated on the Branch of Ten Mile Creek. Ten Mile Creek empties into Monongahela River at Millsboro and the north fork of the creek rises in Morris Township and provides water for the Townships of East and West Bethlehem, Amwell and Morris. After 1814, Nicholas moved his family to Butler County, Ohio and after 1830, he moved on to Wayne County, Indiana, where he died. He is listed in the 1830 Census of Ohio, Milford Township, Butler County, Nicholas' name appears in several deed books of Washington County, Pa. and Butler County, Ohio.

On 31 March 1802, there is a deed between John RYAN and his wife Catherine to Nicholas CLOSSER of Amwell, Morris Township, Washington County, Pa., a parcel of land on Two Mile Creek containing 156 acres and ninety perches of land. The selling price was $702.15.

On 10 April 1805, also in Washington Co. PA, there is a deed from Daniel MC FARLAND and wife to Nicholas CLOSSER of one hundred acres with an allowance of six percent, sale price $180.00.

On 31 December 1813, Nicholas and his wife sold to Jacob ANDERSON a tract containing fifty-two acres for $156.93, and the last entry in Washington County, Nicholas sold to Eli DICKINSON sixty eight acres on Ten Mile Creek on 13 October 1814 for $600.00.

On 6 May 1820, Nicholas CLOSSER and Mary, his wife, sold to Samuel YOUNG the east one-half of the northwest quarter of Section 15, Town 5 Range 2 East. The price was nine hundred and sixty dollars. The deed was signed by Nicholas CLOSSER and Mary (x) CLOSSER his wife. Witnesses were Matthew RICHARDSON and Sarah CRUMB. This deed took place in Butler Co. OH.

On 10 March 1827, Nicholas CLOSSER and Mary, his wife, sold to David SHAFFER, part of the West one-half of the SW quarter Section 15, Town 5, Range 2 East 10 acres for the sum of One hundred twenty dollars. It was signed by Nicholas and his wife. Witnesses were Matthew RICHARDSON and Marie RICHARDSON.

On 4 November 1829, John MORRIS sold to Nicholas, both of Butler County, Ohio, part of the SW section 22, town 5, range 2, east 50 acres for the sum of Four hundred and fifty dollars. Deed was signed by John MORRIS and Nancy MORRIS and witnessed by A.F.DARR and Stephen KENDALL.

On 28 January 1831, Enoch MORRIS sold to Edward OGLE, land in the SW quarter section 22, town 5, range 2 east, "being the remainder of the said quarter section and deeded to Elijah EAST and Nicholas CLOSSER in tracts of 50 acres each." Signed by Enoch MORRIS and Ann MORRIS. Witnesses were A. F. DARR, Richard SCOTT, and William LIPPENCOTT.

On 28 December 1831, Nicholas CLOSSER sold to Mahlon MORRIS part of the SW quarter, Section 22, town 5, range 2 east, 50 acres for the sum of Five hundred dollars. It was signed by Nicholas CLOSSER and Rebecca (x) CLOSSER. Witnesses were A.F. DARR and Charlotte EARHEART.

On 8 July 1829, Nicholas CLOSSER sold to Joseph AUGSPERGER the West one-half of the NW quarter of section 15, town 5, range 2 East for the sum of Nine hundred and sixty dollars. Deed was signed by Nicholas and witnessed by Elliott DAVIS and Samuel DAVIS, Jr.

After the death of Mary (placed somewhere between 1829-1831), Nicholas married the widow SMITH. There was a deed signed by Nicholas and Rebecca CLOSSER, so I believe that to be her first name. She may have predeceased Nicholas, as she was not named in his will; however, according to a biographical sketch on the Closser family, it stated "…that Nicholas was small in stature, but of great mental and physical vigor. He met a sudden death in 1835-6 while riding out with his wife, his horse took fright and ran away. He was thrown out and killed at the age of 84". It is possible that he married for a third time, or perhaps his will was made before his marriage to the widow SMITH.

Nicholas and Mary had a total of seventeen children and in the seventeen there were four sets of twins.

Nicholas's Will and comments, left intact as the original. (From Jackie Bullock)

After the death of his first wife Mary (placed between 1827 and 1831), Nicholas married the Widow SMITH. She apparently predeceased Nicholas as she was not named in his will. Nicholas died in Wayne County, Indiana in 1835-6, and his will was probated in Butler County, Ohio in March 1837.1 It reads as follows:

In the name of god Amen. I Nicholas Clossor of the county of Butler and state of Ohio being in good health of body and of sound mind and memory thanks be to god for the same and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs whilst I have strength and capacity so to do: do make and publish this my last will and testament hereby revolking and making all former wills by me made and previously I commit my soul into the hands of my creator who gave it and my body to the earth to be decently interred: and as to such worldly estate where with it hath pleased god to entrust me with dispose of the same as the money that is owing to me can or will be collected it shall be put out to interest for the use and benefit of son Charles Clossor. Remain so for his use until his death also I give and bequeath unto my daughter Catherine Thompson five dollars also I give and bequest unto the heirs of my son John Clossor five dollars and it is my will that after the death of my son Charles Clossor all my estate that shall then remain shall be divided equally between Elizabeth Horn, Daniel Clossor, Nicholas Clossor, nancy Moris late Nancy Clossor, Mary Horn, Jacob Clossor and Abraham Clossor also it is my will that Samuel Young shall be guardian for my son Charles Clossor. Also it is my will that Daniel Clossor shall be my executor to this my will and lastly I declare this to be my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the twenty eight day July in year of our lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine.

Notes for Mary Hafer:

I have at least two birth years for her, 1760, and 1785. The 1785 date appears to be wrong, unless it was a second marriage, since several children were born prior to her birth.

Jane (aka) Jennie Morris

Posted by: willam shelton (ID 0037) Date: May 16, 2006 at 06:41:03

15814 of 16283 Go

I have come into some documents this past week about the following people:

Jane (aka)Jennie Morris Marvel wife of George Marvel, my great great grandparents.

Brother John S. Morris who married a Julia A..
Brother Willie Morris
Sister Pauline Morris Riggs
Brother Milas Morris
Sister Annie Morris Fitch
Sister Ester Morris Farmer

Jane was apparently born about 1819, she and George were married about 1840/45, and though I haven't found it yet, are suppose to be found in the 1840 census of White County Illinois. One note that I have, is that their parents MAY have been a Joseph and Hannah Morris. Of course family tradition also says that Jane was indian.

Does any of the above information help anyone to make a positive id of this Morris family?

Other name associated with group include: Cross, Frazier, Cane, Taylor, Bradley, McCracken and something that looks like Bolden.

Thanks for any help

I cannot identify the names you have but am curious on the Native American part.

Number 1 there are many researchers on worldconnect for george Marvel and Jane Morris, although they do not have much for her. One has birth and death dates.

Number 2 it seems they have WAYNE Co., Ill not WHITE Co., try finding them there in the 1850 census.

My MORRIS line were in Hancock Co., Pike Co and Fulton Co that we know of so far. I know there are at least one more sibling (male). All the children were born in Indiana from 1820 to 1832. The one born in 1832 has it from Greene Co., Indiana.

Possible mothers name is Nancy UNKNOWN MORRIS. We too have heard of the Native American Indiana and as of yet, have not found it, but havent even found the 3rd or 4th grt grandparents either.

It COULD be possible that Janes father was a sibling to our male MORRIS. Nancy had her birth place as Ohio but most of the kids ALWAYS had Indiana except a sister who had Ohio and the youngest ALWAYS had NC and Tn. Not sure who gave the info in the 1850 census with the mom being from Ohio. I'm waiting to see if Hancock Co Society can find anything on her or who she had married.

My MORRIS line seemed to move around alot,sometimes going back to Illinois. But most where somewhat settled in one place.

Sue,
I have information that says Allen and Alexander were sons of John W. Morris and Rebecca Huff. It seems they never married. She later gave birth to another son, Alfred. At some point, she left them all.Rebecca's parents took Alfred and John W., Allen and Alexander lived with John's parents, Elias and Mary Morris at least until 1850. He then married Elenor Dickenson or Dixon. They moved from Harlan Ky to Lee County Va.around 1857. I believe they were all buried in Lee Co.

What information do you have?

Would appreciate any information on Alonzo, his father or his siblings who are believed to be:

Jesse P., Samuel Darling, Lovenski Brooks, and Richard MORRIS.

Their father is reported to be William Morris who was married to Sara Jane(Darling-Peeples), but which William Morris was it that was born about 1755 in Anderson, SC?

Sincerely, Dee

I am at a stand still with this lady. She married several times and the last one was to Benton Shrode. She was born Mary M Simpson, Indiania around 1854, marries Richard Cole in Missouri, then she lies with a Dr. Morris and has a child, George N Morris (my ggfather). She marries Mr. Shrode in 1895, he dies 1915 in Ark and I loose her any help would be appreciated.

The Williamsburg SC census of 1830 lists seven Morris men right together on the same,each with their families. Listed are Charles, Solomon, Isaac Sr, Isaac Jr, Richard, Benjamin, and John. John (age 60-70) appears to be the father. Isaac Sr. (40-50). The rest are 20-30 or 30-40. Can anyone tell if this is a father and his sons or other grouping? I believe Isaac Sr. to be the one b.1785 SC who later went to Randolph Co GA and Henry Co AL. Could this John be his father? June

MORRIS, BENSON, TAYLOR, REED
MORRIS, REED, BENSON, TAYLOR My name is Robert Reed Morris. I am looking for the father of James G MORRIS, my ggg g/f b about 1816 in N.C. He was in the 1860 census in Henderson Co. Tn. James G married Mahala BENSON b about 1824. Her father was Eleven BENSON b 1793 and died in 1875 in He Co Tn and buried in Barren Springs Tn. James G's wife, Mahala also disappeared at the same time as James G. I am the great-grandson of John Morrow MORRIS, son of Jesse Morrow MORRIS and Polly Ann JOHNSON.
Until obtaining the bio below about John's son Wesley, I had believed John's middle name was "Marion" but now I am convinced that John's middle name and that of his father Jesse, is "Morrow"

Any additional information would be welcome.
John Denning, Covington, Washington

"HISTORY OF SAN JOAQUIN COUNTY 987
"WESLEY A. MORRIS - An experienced contractor well known to Stockton and vicinity as an expert builder of bungalows, who made Stanislaus County the scene of his operations for a period of two years, but who returned to Lodi in the summer of 1921, is Wesley A. Morris. He was born near Independence, Jackson County, Mo., on February 14, 1855, the son of John Morrow Morris, a Kentuckian who hailed from Greenville and came into Missouri in early days. He farmed there, and also worked as a mechanic capable of building all kinds of wagons. He married Miss Lucinda Maze, and she died when our subject was four and one-half years old. Grandfather Jesse Morrow Morris and his wife, who was Polly Ann Johnson, were reared at Louisville, Ky., but came to Missouri in the early days. An uncle of Wesley Morris, William Maze, left Missouri and came to California some years before the Civil War. During the Civil War John M. Morris moved his family to Leavenworth County, Kansas, and in 1861 purchased a farm about seven miles to the south-east of Leavenworth; and shortly after that, he died there. He had married a second time and his wife, who survives him, makes her home at Independence, Missouri.
Wesley was sent to the rural district school near Independence, and when only fourteen years of age, he started to earn his own living, and left the home of his sister, Mary, the wife of John G. Smiley, a sergeant in the Civil War. He worked for wages on various farms until he was seventeen years old, and then he studied the mechanism of the Singer sewing machine, and became one of the company's adjusters at Kansas City, remaining there until in 1877, when he went to Independence and was in the employ of G. M. Nichol & Bro., until 1880, when he came out to California.
He intended to continue in the employ of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, but after thirty days with the Stockton agency, he took up carpentering and building with D. M. Chapell, and did so well in the new field that he was very active in Stockton as a carpenter until 1897. Then he went back to the vicinity of his birthplace, and after spending a year in the Middle West, in 1898 he returned to Stockton, but soon went to Lodi, and there worked as a contactor until 1909, when he went Florida. At Orlando and Jacksonville he again followed building, but in 1919 returned to California. He stayed a short time at Lodi, and then, in June 1919, moved to Modesto, where he once more took up contracting and building.
Mr. Morris has been twice married. At Kansas City on April 22, 1877, he was united to Miss Josephine E. Pierce, a native of Jackson County, Mo., and the daughter of John and Mary A. Pierce. Her parents came from Knoxville, Tenn., and were early settlers and farmers in Missouri. Again, at Orlando, Fla., on March 13, 1911, Mr. Morris chose a wife, the lady being Mrs. Mary (Temperence) Houston, a daughter of an Alabama planter. She died on January 30, 1916, near Orlando, Fla. Of Mr. Morris' three children, two are still living. Orie Bliss was well known at Lodi up to 1918 as a poultryman, but he is at present engaged in real estate transaction in Los Angeles. He married Miss Irene Genevieve Woods and they have four children. Mary Effie, the second child born, has become Mrs. Harry Lansing Boswell of Los Angeles; Mabel Gertrude died at the age of eleven months. Mr. Morris's grandchildren are Gladys Genevieve, Eunice Erma, Nadine Naomi, and Raymond Russell, the offspring of Mr. and Mrs. Orie Bliss Morris; and Harry Lansing, Jr., the child of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lansing Boswell. A great-grandchild is Erma Stella Pearson, the daughter of Roosevelt R. and Gladys Genevieve (Morris) Pearson. Mr. Morris is a member of the Seventh Day Adventists, having been a member of that congregation since 1897. In politics he is strictly non-partisan, voting for the best men and measures regardless of party affiliation.

Indian Killed Girls, a story about William Morris by Bonita Bell, of Summersville

172, a spot that's now in Lockwood, Nicholas Co, VA

My ancestor, William Morris, was one of the first settlers of the Kanawha Valley. He came to the Kelly's Creek area in the 1700's to obtain salt. His son, Henry, moved his family in 1791 to a spot that now is Lockwood, Nicholas Co. The next year, his two little girls, Peggy and Betsy Morris, were slain by Indians. In 1922, our Nicholas County Historical and Genealogical Society honored their memory with an impressive service at Lockwood.

Nicholas County was formed in 1818 from Greenbrier and Kanawha Counties, as part of Virginia. My family has been in the county for two centuries. Many relatives are listed in the 1850 Census of Nicholas County. Written by: Bonita Bell, Summersville

William Morris

Founder and defender of Fort Morris, first fort on the Great Kannua River. He and his 8 sons gave service at differend times and places from 1774 - 1794. First in the Dunmore War; later at different fors, scout duty, etc.

This information is from Clara Belle Williams Application of membership to The National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

D unmore's War (or Lord Dunmore's War) was a war from 1774 to 1775 between the Colony of Virginia and the Indian nations of the Shawnee and Mingo.

The House of Burgesses was asked by Lord Dunmore, the Governor of Virginia, to declare a state of war with the hostile Indian nations and order up an elite volunteer militia force for the campaign.

The context of the conflict resulted from escalating violence between British colonists who in accordance with previous treaties were exploring and moving into land south of the Ohio River—modern West Virginia and Kentucky—and American Indians who held treaty rights to hunt there.

As a result of successive attacks by Indian hunting and war bands upon the settlers, war was declared "to pacify the hostile Indian war bands". The war ended soon after Virginia's victory in the Battle of Point Pleasant on October 10, 1774.

As a result of this victory, the Indians lost the right to hunt in the area and agreed to recognize the Ohio River as the boundary between Indian lands and the British colonies.

Although the Indian national chieftains signed the treaty, conflict within the Indian nations soon broke out between more radical tribesmen who felt the treaty sold out their claims and tribesmen who felt another war would mean only further losses of territory to the more powerful British colonists.

When war broke out between the British colonists and the British government, the war parties of the Indian nations quickly gained power and mobilized the various Indian nations to attack the British colonists during the Revolutionary War.

First Settlers Plaque

FIRST SETTLERS
Walter Kelly settled here about 1773 but was killed by Indians. William Morris came here in 1774 and made first permanent settlement in this valley. He built a fort, had a "boat yard," and started a church and school.

Six regiments were immeditely organized at Camp Morton, by the appointment of field and staff officers. Since the state had five regiments in the Mexican war, the new regiments were numbered by beginning with the Sixth and running to the Eleventh. Colonels Crittenden of the Sixth, Dumont of the Seventh, Milroy of the Ninth, Mansion of the Tenth, and Wallace of the Eleventh were all veterans of the Mexican war. DEATHS
ANDERSON DEMOCRAT — 1881–1890

16 Dec. 1881

Mrs. T. Hughes died at her home, two miles west of this place, last Thursday night. Her remains were interred in the cemetery south of town, Saturday.

On Thursday of last week, at noon, the neighborhood two miles northeast of here was startled to hear the sad news that Jane Kinney, aged about eighteen years, was found dead in an old well some few rods from the house, where she had been preparing dinner a few minutes before. The Coroner's verdict was that she committed suicide.

On Wednesday evening of last week, the editor was called by telegraph to the death-bed of a little niece, the only daughter of Dr. G. N. and Carrie Hilligoss, of Lapel Madison county, Indiana. Little Gertie was the idol of the Doctor's family and a cherished favorite among relatives and friends. The sweetest flower of the field—she yielded her little life of six summers on earth for one blessed and bright, where disease and death comes not and where we shall live on and through endless happiness and glorious triumph with kindred spirits. This is the third summons to the home of our youth, in the brief space of three years, to attend the funeral of dear relatives. Truly: "Nothing can we call our own, but death."

The funeral of F. Marvel will be preached at the Mt. Pisgah church, on Sunday, the 25th inst., by Rev. Storms.

23 Dec. 1881

The funeral of Frank Maricle was postponed on account of sickness in the family, until the fourth Sunday in January.

J. W. Wilson died at the residence of his father, Thursday the 22d inst., after an illness of four weeks. Services were held at the house by the Rev. Smith, after which a large number of friends and relatives followed the remains to their last resting place in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery.

30 Dec. 1881

Alexander Clark, father of Alex. Clark of this city, died on his birth-day at the advanced age of eighty-seven years, at the residence of his son, Granvil Clark, four miles south of Pendleton. He was interred Monday.

Willitts Wilson, son of James Wilson, residing near Alexandria, this county, whose serious illness we noted last week, died on Friday last, after an illness of nearly four weeks.

Dr. Hunt received a postal announcing the death of his niece at Washington, Wayne county, this State, on the morning of the 23rd inst. She leaves a husband and three grown daughters to mourn her loss.

6 Jan. 1882

Samuel Hughes of Monroe township, was in the city last Friday, looking after matters connected with the settlement of the Wm. Young estate. ✓

A family of nine persons by the name of Morris, residing in Fallcreek township, have been sorely afflicted with typhoid fever. Mr. M. lost his wife and six children, two of the latter being buried on the same day. The old gentleman is a cripple for life. One young child and himself are all that is left out of the nine.

William Passwaters, of Stoneycreek township, died very suddenly last Friday with apoplexy or heart disease. He ate his dinner in perfect health and was standing in the door when he dropped dead. The funeral took place last Sunday. He was about 33 years of age and leaves a wife and three children in indigent circumstances.

Columbus Wilson's child, aged four years, died yesterday morning of lung fever.

Benjamin Hiney, of Stoney Creek township, has lost three members of his family, his wife and two sons, within the past six weeks, with typhoid fever.

Frank Knights, city, who was called to Urbana, Ohio, by the serious illness of his brother, telegraphed Mr. Krauth Monday last, informing him of his father's death at that place on Monday afternoon.

6 Jan. 1882

OBITUARY.

It is our painful duty, this week, to record the rather sudden death of Mrs. Sophia Biddle, wife of the present efficient Sheriff of the county, who died of lung fever after an illness of a few days, at the Sheriff's residence on corner of Washington and Jackson streets, on Friday afternoon of last week. She was buried, Sunday, in the Baptist cemetery, near Columbus, being followed to her last resting place by a large concourse of friends.

Mrs. Biddle was born in Passquotank county, North Carolinia, March 24, 1830, and moved with her father's family to this county and settled on Fall Creek, July 16, 1832. She was married to Randle Biddle Oct. 10, 1850, with whom she has lived happily, devoting her time and energies to promote the comfort and happiness of her husband and children.

Such was her manner of life, her gentleness and love, and patient forbearance that she was more than loved—she was idolized by her children and husband, who are left sorrow stricken and disconsolate indeed by her death.

The old saying "that death leaves a shining mark," has proven only too true in her case as she was the "sunshine" of the Biddle household—the charmed center of attraction of a large groupe of personal friends who knew and appreciated her worth.

"No single virtue we could most commend,
Whether the wife, the mother, or the friend;
For she was all in that supreme degree,
That, as no one prevailed, so all was she.
The several parts lay hidden in the piece;
The occasion but exerted that, or this."

Although early impressed with a strong religious belief, she did not unite with the church until in 1862, when she became a member of the Baptist church remaining a devoted ehristian until death.

In referring to the departure from this life, of a woman so noble and pure, the term death hardly seems appropriate:

There is no death! What seems so is transition,
  This life of mortal breath
Is but a suberb of the life elysian,
  Whose portals we call Death.
In that great cloister's stillness and seclusion,
  By guardian angels led.
Safe from temptation, safe from sin's pollution
  She lives whom we call dead.

---

6 Jan. 1882

We are requested by Sheriff Biddle and family in their behalf to thank their friends and neighbors for their sympathy and assistance during the late illness and death of Mrs. Biddle.

The old County Jail and Sheriff's residence seems to be a fated place. Mrs. Biddle makes the third lady occupant in successio who has died while residing there. Mrs. McAllister, wife of Sheriff McAllister, died in a few months after moving into the jail. Mrs. Al. Ross was the next occupant, and died while r[illegible]iding there. Mr. Biddle then becam[illegible]iler and took up his residence ther[illegible]d his wife, just before they were r[illegible]y to vacate the old nuisance to occupy the Sheriff's residence at the new jail, follows Mrs. McAllister and Mrs. Ross down to and over the dark river, Death.

13 Jan. 1882

Peter Worth and wife lost a little girl aged about four years, of diptheria, on last Saturday night. The remains were interred at the Vinson cemetery on Monday last.

Last Sunday B. F. Davis was called upon, by the death of Mrs. Manis, to use his hearse.

W. P. Randall adjourned his school at No. 1 Green township, Monday, on account of the funeral of Joshua Valentine.

Joshua Valentine, of Green township, one of the oldest citizens of the county, died on Friday last, of lung troubles and old age. He was 73 years two months and eighteen years old at the time of his death. He was buried Monday at Pleasant Valley, in that township.

Nellie Harris, wife of George Harris, of Monroe township, this county, died very suddenly of heart disease, last Friday night. She was ill for some months, but was better than usual for a few weeks before her death, which came unexpectedly. She leaves a husband and one son grown to manhood. She was buried last Sunday.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

HOW TO USE THESE RECORDS

There is no general index to this volume of cemetery records. Only surnames are in alphabetical order. Families are usually buried together, so these records are kept in these family groupings. The head of the family is, in most cases, listed first, then a one space indenture for the remainder of the family buried with him or her.

When it was possible, maiden names of wives, parents and other pertinent data, were added in parenthisis to make these records of greater genealogical value.

The Genealogical Index contains the maiden names of women that are naturally scattered throughout the volume and will be found under some other surname.

When checking your family names, look first under the surnames. After finding the name in a particular cemetery, turn to the end of that cemetery for additional data. Thirdly, turn to the "Genealogical Index" for the female members of the family.

IN APPRECIATION

I am indebted to Willard Heiss of Indianapolis, Indiana, for the use of his Quaker records, his advice and encouragement on this project and to the Fort Wayne Public Library, Fort Wayne, Indiana, for their interest and assistance in getting this material into printed form.

Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

John Morris and wife Susanna with sons Homer and Lewey.( Census has him as James L. so I'm guessing L stood for Lewis.) John's parents and siblings joined them also. They were Jesse and Eleanor Morris with children Lena and Jesse. This was about 1880 when they left Missouri and went to Oregon and then on to Washington about 1882.

JAMES W. BROWN, attorney at law, was born in Marion County, Indiana September 29, 1837. His parents were Thomas B. and Jane M. (Day) Brown, both of English descent, and natives of Mason County, Ky., and Clermont County, Ohio, respectively. His paternal grandparents were George and Maria (Lee) Brown, natives of Virginia, the latter a niece of the illustrious Richard Henry Lee and Francis Lightfoot Lee, signers of the Declaration of Independence. From Virginia these grandparents emigrated to Mason County, Ky., and thence to Marion County, Indiana. In 1847, when but ten years of age, the subject of this sketch left the parental roof and, going forth to seek his fortune, went to Noblesville, Indiana where for a time he lived with an uncle. At the early age of fourteen years he became Deputy County Clerk of Hamilton County, and served as such for seven years. In 1863 he came to Rushville and here served eight years as Deputy Clerk of Rush County, when in 1870, his faithful services were rewarded by an election to be chief of the office in which he had so long served as a subordinate. At the end of his official term he commenced the practice of law with Mr. George C. Clark, continuing thereat, until September 1879, when again he became County Clerk by appointment, and by reason of a subsequent election remained in office until November 1884. Thus, it will be seen, twenty-four years of his life have been devoted to the public services. His entire attention is now given to the practice of his profession. He was married at Noblesville, Indiana. September 3, 1860, to Lucinda Francelia Plato, daughter of Steward and Eliza (Hall) Plato. Mrs. Brown was born in Rome, N. Y., and was reared at Utica, N. Y. Her paternal grandmother was a cousin of Millard Fillmore and Zachariah Taylor. Mr. Brown is the father of three children: Sarah H., Laura P., and Charles C., all of whom are living. He is a member of the F. & A. M. and I. 0. 0. F. lodges, and in politics a Republican, staunch and active. From 1882 to 1884, he was a member of the Republican state Central Committee as Chairman of the Sixth Congressional District Committee, and in April, 1884, presided over the convention that nominated Lion. Thomas M. Brown for Congress, and that to select delegates to the Chicago Republican Convention.

CHARLES E. PAULEY, who died April 15, 1930, was one of Indiana's most successful business men in his chosen vocation, that of printer and publisher, having gained an enviable reputation and amassed a competence in the twenty-four years he has been located in Indianapolis. His word was reckoned by his business associates in lieu of a contract and his force of character is exhibited by what he accomplished. His plant was located in the [illegible] Building, at [illegible] North New Jersey Street, which he built in 1922.

Mr. Pauley was born January 15, 1868, near Greenfield, Hancock County, Indiana, the son of Joseph H. and Nancy (Morris) Pauley. His father was a native of Missouri. The mother [illegible]. He was educated largely in the country schools and at [illegible] School, about [illegible] miles northeast of Greenfield, Indiana. He was [illegible] a teacher's license but decided to learn the printer's trade [illegible] for two years [illegible]. As a journeyman printer he set type by hand on the Indianapolis Sentinel and in the United States Weather Bureau printing offices in Vicksburg and New Orleans.

It was during this time that the hand compositor or typesetter faced the certainty of being supplanted by the linotype machine, a mechanical device for the production of printing surfaces. Mr. Pauley, possessing a remarkable amount of mechanical and inventive genius, at once began studying the mechanism of this device, supplementing his education with [illegible] at the [illegible] School at Brooklyn, New York. He then moved his family to Logansport, Indiana, where he took charge of the linotype machines of the Logansport Journal.

In March [illegible], he returned to Indianapolis and [illegible] linotype machine and started in business for himself in the Union Block. The growth of his business was [illegible], as evidenced by the fact that for the next eleven years he added one machine each year until the battery consisted of twelve machines. [illegible] he added a general printing equipment. This growth naturally necessitated a number of changes to larger quarters, the first move being to 37 South Capitol Avenue, the second to 19 North Alabama Street, and then to the [illegible] Building at 111 East Maryland Street, which he purchased. His last move was to the [illegible] Building, a modern six story structure which he had erected as an ideally arranged building for printers, the C. E. Pauley Company occupying the entire first floor.

Mr. Pauley was married on July 27, [illegible], to Gertrude Chamberlain of Greenfield, Indiana. She was the daughter of Mary M. and Samuel Chamberlain (the latter an attorney), both natives of Ohio. She died April 9, [illegible].

The only surviving child is Hazel Gertrude, the wife of Edmund H. [illegible]. Mrs. [illegible] is president of C. E. Pauley & Company, Inc., which organization continues the business Mr. Pauley had established.

The other children, now deceased, were: Mary Ethel, who married Lee V. [illegible]; [illegible], who married Frank H. [illegible]; and Florence E. Pauley.

CHARLES E. PAULEY, who died April 15, 1930, was one of Indiana's most successful business men in his chosen vocation, that of printer and publisher, having gained an eviable reputation and amassed a competence in the twenty-four years he had been located in Indianapolis. His word was accepted by his business associates in lieu of a contract and his force of character is indicated by what he accomplished. His plant was housed in the Printcraft Building, at 225 North New Jersey Street, which he built in 1922.

Mr. Pauley was born January 15, 1868, near Greenfield, Hancock County, Indiana, the son of Joseph H. and Nancy (Morris) Pauley, the latter a native of Missouri. The mother died when Charles was but two years old. His education was obtained largely in the country school known as Lemon's Corner School, about seven miles northeast of Greenfield, Indiana. He was issued a teacher's license but decided to learn the printer's trade, which continued to hold an extreme fascination for him even long after he had attained financial affluence. As a journeyman printer he set type by hand on the Indianapolis Sentinel and in the United States Weather Bureau printing offices in Vicksburg and New Orleans.

It was during this time that the hand compositor or typesetter faced the certainty of being supplanted by the linotype machine, a mechanical device for the production of printing surfaces. Mr. Pauley, possessing a remarkable amount of mechanical and inventive genius, at once began studing the intricacies of this device, culminating his education with matriculation at the Mergenthaler School in Brooklyn, New York. He then moved his family to Logansport, Indiana, where he took charge of the linotype machines of the Logansport Journal.

In May, 1906, he returned to Indianapolis and purchased one linotype machine and started in business for himself in the Union Block. The growth of his business was remarkably progressive, as evidenced by the fact that for the next eleven years he added one linotype each year until the battery consisted of twelve machines. To these he added a general printing equipment. This growth naturally necessitated a number of changes to larger quarters, the first move being to 37 South Capitol Avenue, the second to 19 North Alabama Street, and then to the Elks Building at 112 East Maryland Street, which he purchased. His last move was to the Printcraft Building, a modern six story structure which he had erected as an ideally arranged building for printers, the C. E. Pauley Company occupying the entire first floor.

Mr. Pauley was married on July 27, 1888, to Gertrude Chamberlain at Greenfield, Indiana. She was the daughter of Mary M. and Samuel Chamberlain (the latter an attorney), both natives of Ohio. She died April 9, 1928.

The only surviving child is Hazel Gertrude, the wife of Edmund H. Koon. Mrs. Koon is president of C. E. Pauley & Company, Inc., which organization continues the business Mr. Pauley had established.

The other children, now deceased, were: Mary Ethel, who married Lee V. Merriman; Mabel Edna, who married Frank H. Meredith, and Margaret K. Pauley.

Subject: Descendants of George Morris, Wilkes, NC abt 1760

I am looking for descendants of George Morris and Sarah Colston, who were married in Wilkes County, North Carolina 8 Jan 1782.

The children still living in 1850 were:

James Morris b. abt 1783
Susannah "Sukie" Morris Runyan b. abt 1785
Abraham Morris b. abt 1790
Mark Morris b. 10 Oct 1794
Sarah Morris Davidson b. abt 1796
Nancy Morris Hunt b. abt 1800

In addition, there may have been a William, but if so, he must have died before 1850.

By the way, Sarah's name was almost certainly spelled with a T, Colston. Her son, Mark, spelled it that way in applying for a Revolutionary War pension. Some folks seem to be looking in vain for a "Colson" family.

If you are (or know of) a male descendant with the Morris surname, I'll pay for the DNA test kit. We may be related. Get in touch.
